Boy, man struck and killed by cars

Andrew C. "Andy" Besserman Jr., 21, of 1915 Rhodes St., East Madison, was injured fatally when struck by a car while crossing Edwardsville Road southbound toward the Granite City Steel blast furnace division gate at 10:40 p.m. Tuesday.

Illinois State Police troopers reported Mr. Besserman was walking just west of the crosswalk while the traffic light was green for automobile traffic when Besserman was struck by the eastbound car of John E. Bunk, 2123 Hildebrand St., Cloverleaf Addition, according to witnesses.

Mr. Besserman was thrown to the edge of the road and came to rest next to a guardrail. A Granite City ambulance was called and attendants reported there were no signs of life when they arrived.

He was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where doctors worked nearly an hour attempting to revive him. He was pronounced dead at 11:50 p.m. Tuesday.

Mr. Besserman was the son of Andrew Besserman Sr., who was elected April 12 as a trustee of Nameoki Township by a drawing which resolved the tie between himself and Mrs. Helen Hawkins.

A lifelong resident of the Quad-Cities, he was a member of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church. (Continued on Page 4)

KENNETH NOLEN
Accident Victim

Kenneth Michael Nolen, 14, of Wyatt, Mo., formerly of Granite City, died at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday at Cardinal Glennon Hospital, St. Louis, of injuries sustained after he was hit by a van on April 3.

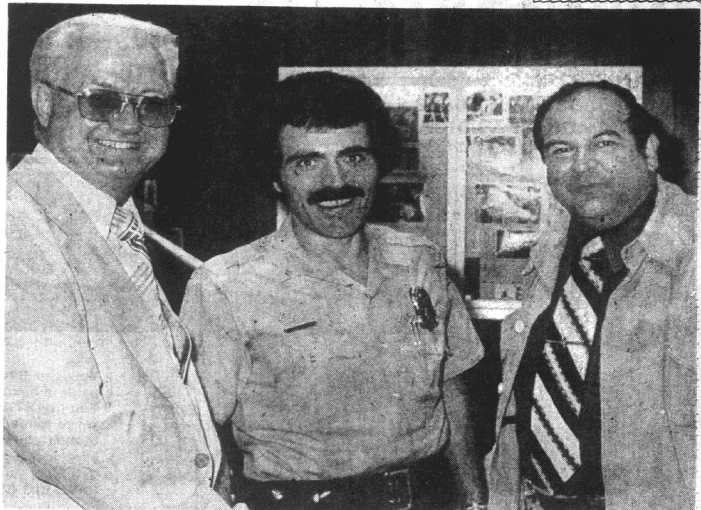

The boy and a friend were riding bicycles in Wyatt and were both struck by a van at about 7 p.m. Young Nolen was taken to the St. Louis hospital where he underwent brain surgery, according to a family spokesman. He never regained consciousness, the family added.

The other boy was treated at a St. Louis hospital for his injuries and was listed as critical until this week. He is recuperating and is expected to be released from the hospital during the weekend.

Born in Granite City the Nolen boy moved to Wyatt nine months ago. He was a ninth-grade student at the Charleston, Mo., high school.

Survivors include his father, John Nolen of Wyatt; his mother, Mrs. Robert (Alice) Garner of Granite City; one brother, Jeffrey Nolen of Granite City; five sisters, Mrs. Thomas (Phyllis) McCullough, Mrs. Karen Odle and Mrs. Marsha George, all of Granite City; Mrs. Graham (Yvonne) Fisher of Wyatt and Mrs. James (Barbara) Allen of Charleston, Mo.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Assessor hiring control is shifted

An interpretation of Illinois law under which the Granite City Council — serving as the Town Board — is expected to appoint deputy township assessors, clerks and other personnel in the office of Township Assessor Von Dec Cruse was outlined to council members sitting as the Town Board Tuesday night.

The interpretation was contained in copies of an opinion by Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott which also authorizes the town board of auditors (the City Council) to

Cloaking baby saved Worthen winner

Fast action and ingenuity by Pontoon Beach Patrolman Mike Staicoff is being credited with saving the life of a 4-day-old baby in the village Tuesday night.

On and off the record $110 'mail' delivered

The U.S. Postal Service may have its operating problems, but there can be no question about its honesty, according to Lester Andrews, 148 Big Four Place, Mitchell.

Andrews said that his wife gathered up some mail, and with unknowingly picked up a blank envelope containing $110 in cash and "mailed" it along with the other letters.

Police, an ambulance and firemen were called to the home of Mrs. Donna Zingrich, 3964 Lake St., at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday after Mrs. Zingrich reported her 4-day-old son, Eric, was choking and had stopped breathing. Staicoff went to the house at that address while rescue unit volunteers from the fire department went to Mrs. Zingrich's mobile home on the same lot.

There, a postal worker found a deposit slip bearing the Andrews name and address with the cash. Someone placed the cash and deposit slip in another envelope, addressed it to the Andrews family and returned it.

Staicoff found the mother and child in the house and noted the child appeared to be suffocating from food and mucus in its throat and nose.

Unable to clear the child's breathing passages, Staicoff asked the mother if she had any kind of suction bulb or device and she said she had none.

A rapid search yielded a hypodermic syringe — a veterinarian had given the family for use on a family dog. Staicoff removed the needle from the syringe and used the syringe and plunger to remove the substance from the child's throat and nose and then got the baby breathing again.

At that time, the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department rescue squad located the child with Staicoff and used an inhalator unit to aid the child in continuing to breathe.

Eric was taken by Granite City Ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was examined. X-rays showed his lungs free of fluid and he was released and taken home.

Staicoff was commended yesterday by Pontoon Beach Chief of Police Rosewell Bennett Jr., who said, "Patrolman Staicoff acted in a very professional manner, using what he had available to save a human life. His fast actions and quick thinking undoubtedly were responsible for this child being alive today.

"I commend Patrolman Staicoff for his actions which prove that policemen are there to help the citizens in any way they can and are trained to handle most emergency situations," Bennett concluded.

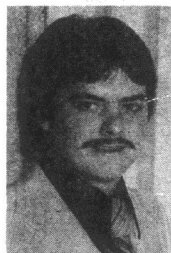

Staicoff received medical training through the American Red Cross during his 240-hour basic police training program.

John "Jeff" Worthen, a 23-year-old bricklayer who has been active in park district recreation activities all his life, defeated Henry R. Gabriel, president of the Granite City Park Board, in park balloting Tuesday. Barry Loman, board vice-president, was re-elected to the park board during the election.

Worthen proved the top vote-getter in the three-way race for two board seats, collecting 698 votes. Loman received 641 votes and Gabriel, 521.

A total of 1,245 voters cast ballots in the election, giving

Turn clocks ahead Sunday

Quad-City area residents are being reminded to turn their clocks ahead one hour when retiring Saturday night as the nation will change to Daylight Saving Time at 2 a.m. Sunday.

The annual change gives Americans an extra hour of daylight at the end of the day. Daylight Saving Time will continue through the last weekend in October when clocks will return to standard time.

board, elected April 9, and Gerald D. Cicio, elected to a one-year term. Tolliver served as board president for the past three years. Wilbur Glasper, appointed to the board Nov. 15, 1976, to fill an unexpired term, also was seated Monday as a new three-year board member.

Tickets on sale for GC police dance

Ticket sales are going well for the annual Granite City Police Department dance Friday night at the Madison County Firemen's Hall on Route 40 (Collinsville Avenue) near Fairmount Race Track. Don Knight, dance chairman, reported today.

Tickets costing $3 per person are available at the Granite City Police Department or from any Granite City policeman. They also will be available at the door.

The Bob Kuban Brass, which gained national recognition for their hit record "The Cheater," will provide music for dancing. The Kuban group plays a wide variety of music from big band sounds to rock and roll, Knight said.

Proceeds from the dance will aid the health and welfare fund of the police union.

CLERK TAKES OATH. Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk, left, administers oath of office Tuesday night to Madison City Clerk John Belicoff who was re-elected.

Propose new law on use permits

An amendment to Granite City's zoning law to limit special use permits to the business or professional uses for which they were first issued will be considered by the City Council as a result of action in Tuesday night's council session.

The request that City Attorney George Filloff bring in the ordinance amendment was made by Seventh Ward Alderman Emerald Dawes following discussion of City Plan Commission action confirming the use of a special use permit originally issued for use of the property at 2861 Madison Ave. for a real estate office.

Although council members voted to concur in the plan commission action, Dawes noted that it had been his opinion that special use permits were applicable only to the purposes for which they were involved reverted to the original zoning.

Filloff explained that the city's present zoning ordinance provides that a special use permit issued for a specific piece of property may be used for varying purposes listed in the ordinance.

He said that the property at 2861 Madison Ave. used as a real estate office could be changed to use as a chiropractor's office under the original use permit, even without recourse to the plan commission or the City Council.

The discussion involved a notice sent by B.C. Githco to the City Plan Commission, stating that he wished to make it a matter of record that the use permit for a real estate office at Madison Avenue address held by Githco, will be changed to use as a chiropractor's office.

In a meeting April 14, plan commission members voted unanimously to approve the change, noting that "Mr. Githco's request is within the framework of special use ordinance No. 2320." plan commission actions are subject to approval by the City Council.

Dawes noted that under the present ordinance the council "loses all control" over property for which special use permits are issued, and that the aldermen should be permitted to designate the special uses to which property may be put under the special permit system.

JAMES JONES, Minister CLARK AVE. CHURCH OF CHRIST 2120 Clark Ave. #102, St. Louis, Mo. 63104

"After a permit is issued we don't have any control and I don't think that is the intent of the zoning ordinance," Dawes said, adding that "we have had several opinions on this matter and I have been under the impression that once a business or profession no longer uses property for which a permit was issued, a new permit would be needed for a new or other type of business there."

Dawes moved that Filloff bring in an amendment to the present ordinance to limit use of property for which a special use permit is issued, and that once that purpose no longer exists, the property revert to its original zoning. This would require a new use permit for a different type of operation.

Slavic collection will be discussed at annual meet

Representatives from more than 100 Slavic and East European societies in this region will hold their 12th annual conference at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville April 30.

A panel discussion on the Slavic-American collection of the Lovejoy Library at the university will be held at 4 p.m. in the third floor faculty lounge of the library. John C. Abbott, director of the library, Milton C. Moore, head cataloger, and Rudolf Wierer, Slavic-American cataloger, will discuss recent acquisitions to the collection.

The conference dinner and annual meeting of the Slavic and East European Friends of SIUE will be held in the Mississippi-Illinois Room of the University Center at 6:45 p.m. April 30. Stanley Stimac, president, will be in charge of the meeting.

Giles Edward Gobetz, founder and executive director of the Slovenian Research Center of America at Kent State University, will be the after-dinner speaker. Topic of his lecture will be "Slovians in America."

Included on the menu will be such Slavic dishes as Slovenian Zupa and Gulaz Krompirjevi Cmeki.

After-dinner music and folk dancing will be provided by the Slavic Danay Croatian Tambura group of Mt. Olive.

Reservations for the conference dinner will be $6.95. Additional information concerning the conference is available by contacting Mrs. Marie Pass at Lovejoy Library before April 26. Tickets will be held at the door.

The Slavic and East European Friends of SIUE organization was formed to maintain an association of interested persons to preserve and foster Slavic and East European culture and traditions in the United States.

The organization includes people of Russian, Ukrainian, White Russian, Polish, Czech, Slavic, Slovene, Serbian, Croatian and Bulgarian extraction.

According to Stanley Kimball, professor of historical studies at the university and faculty advisor to the SAEF Board of Trustees, SIUE is in the center of a large concentration of Slavic organizations. They include church organizations, lodges, fraternities and cemetery associations.

"SIUE has shown an interest in these organizations, and they have responded by donating all kinds of printed materials relating to their cultures to the university," Kimball said. "As far as we know, it is a unique example of cooperation between a university and the community it serves."

There are many Slavic and East European families in Madison, St. Clair and Macoupin Counties in Illinois and in South St. Louis near the north side of the city and in St. Louis County, Kimball said.

State studying its mandated programs

Governor James R. Thompson (R) has appointed Sen. Sam Vadalabene (D) of Edwardsville as a member of the Governor's Commission on State-Mandated Programs.

The 24-member commission held its first meeting Wednesday in Springfield and has agreed to hold public hearings in Chicago, suburban Cook County, Peoria, Rockford, Quincy, Moline, Champaign, Carbondale, Joliet and the Madison-St. Clair Counties area.

The commission—made up of two subcommittees, one on education and the other on local government—will make reports to the governor by Oct. 31. Exact dates and locations of the public hearings will be announced later.

Gov. Thompson said, "I have appointed Sen. Vadalabene to sit on the local government subcommittee."

"The appointment of Sen. Vadalabene to this commission will be an asset to its accomplishments."

The governor concluded, "The commission will make every effort to objectively reassess the very foundation of state and local relations and review the specific mandated programs in all areas, as well as the financial support now contributed by the state."

SEN. SAM VADALABENE

OFFICER OF ILLINOIS SPEECH HEARING GROUP
Ann Carey, professor of speech pathology and audiology at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, has been named president-elect of the Illinois Speech and Hearing Association. She will be seated during the association's 17th annual convention in Chicago today through Saturday.

ISHA is the professional organization for 2,000 Illinois speech pathologists and audiologists serving in community health clinics, private practice, hospitals and public schools, as teachers in higher education, and in other capacities. Miss Carey is a president of two are organizations, the Speech and Hearing Association of Greater St. Louis and the Southwestern Illinois Speech and Hearing Association.

Board

Gerald D. Cicio, successful candidate for a one-year unexpired term.

Jack R. Tolliver was named board secretary. He has served as president of the Venice School Board for the past three years.

The secretary's post carries a monthly salary of $158 and is rotated annually by board members. Tolliver succeeds Mrs. Jacquelyn Leatherman. The Rev. Bailey, a nine-year member of the board, initially was appointed in March 1960 and won a two-year unexpired term that spring. He was elected to three-year terms in 1970, 1973 and 1976.

Born in Rodney, Miss., the Rev. Bailey has lived in the Venice area since 1944. He has been employed in the Warehousing Department at the Granite City Army Installation for the past 33 years.

The new board president, 53, is pastor of the Church of Our Lord Jesus Christ in St. Louis.

He and his wife, Tommie, a Venice teacher's aide, reside at 223 Hill St., Eagle Park.

The couple has five children. Barbara is a remedial reading teacher in the Title VII program at the Venice school; Barkley is a bank examiner with the Federal Reserve Bank in St. Louis; Brenda is completing graduate work at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville; and Debra and Richard, who graduated in 1976 from Venice High School, are freshmen students at SIUE.

The Rev. Bailey was the first black member of the Venice Board of Education, although the school district enrollment is over 60 per cent black.

Tolliver, 51, who lives at 1250 Klein St., is a 10-year member of the board and an employee of the federal government in St. Louis.

He is a Venice High School graduate and an active participant in programs of Special Education Region 1, which includes the Granite City, Madison and Venice school districts.

Tolliver is a long-time leader of Venice Boy Scout Troop One and coaches basketball squads at St. Mark's Parochial School in Venice.

He is married to the former Evelyn Hartman and is the father of five sons and one daughter.

Prior to his three-year stint as school board president, Tolliver served as chairman of several board committees.

Some confusion occurred during the canvassing of the April 9 election. Ballots of candidates were read and no opposition was voiced to the official count. Board Attorney Lawrence Hartman asked for the number of spoiled ballots registered by the judges to include in the formal resolution adopting the election figures as accurate.

The official tally sheets failed to note the rejected ballots' figure and, after deliberation, the board decided it was necessary to open the canvas bags containing the ballots.

No one voiced objection to the opening, although the proposal was unique in the Venice School District and all appeared uncertain of the procedures involved.

The number of spoiled ballots was not listed on the outside of a brown manila envelope containing the rejected slips, so the envelope was opened and the spoiled ballots were counted by Mrs. Leatherman. The course of action was taken for each of district's two precincts.

The results showed a total of 38 spoiled ballots in Precinct One (Venice School) and 16 spoiled in Precinct Two (Eagle Park Improvement Association Hall).

Following the count, the ballots were returned to the envelopes which were sealed and signed by all the board members and returned to the canvas bags.

The official ballot bags were then wired and sealed by Venice Supt. of Schools Robert N. Vickers, assisted by a Press-Record reporter.

The official canvass showed a total of 904 votes cast, with 612 recorded at Venice Precinct One and 292 at Venice Precinct Two.

Candidates, the number of votes cast for each in Precinct One and Two totals, listed in sequence, are as follows:

John Henry Williams, 313, 30, 343; Jack R. Tolliver, 246, 232, 478; Elmer A. Taylor, 238, 15, 253; Wilbert Glasper, 179, 245, 424; Earl W. Hogan, 370, 8, 378; Scott A. Worley, 297, 3, 300; Verla M. Arns, 35, 241, 274; Gerald Cicio, 462, 10, 472; Alvesta Salmond, 74, 239, 313.

Fred Rumpf, a former school board member, received three write-in ballots in Precinct One.

Immediately after the April 9 election, John Boushard, a member of the board not up for re-election, told the Press-Record that he and newly-elected member, Gerald Cicio, believed there was illegal voting at the Eagle Park precinct.

They alleged that up to 32 persons voted more than once and that up to seven persons voted three times. He said that a poll watcher kept a record of those who participated in the balloting there.

It also was learned that Earl W. Hogan, a newly-elected member, had consulted with Attorney William Kinder concerning the alleged irregularities and a decision whether to take legal action would be made in the next few days.

Kinder was present at Monday night's board meeting, but left after the official canvass was taken. The three other board members involved, failed to bring up the allegations.

No proof of the alleged wrongdoing has been presented publicly so far.

Residual effects of the election campaign were noticeable, however, in the first part of the meeting after the new members were seated. Cicio and Hogan voted "present" upon the nomination of Tolliver to serve as temporary chairman during the election of the new board officers.

Cicio was nominated for the board presidency by Hogan, but declined, and Boushard was nominated for the same post by the Rev. Bailey, but also declined.

The Rev. Bailey's nomination as president was made by Glasper and all seven members voted "aye."

Tolliver was nominated secretary on an affirmative vote of all seven members, as Glasper declined the nomination.

Boushard, Cicio and Hogan all voted "no" to retain Hartman as board attorney. Donald Phillips was retained as district treasurer on an unanimous vote.

In the rehiring of Vickers as superintendent, Hogan voted "no" and Cicio voted "present."

After an executive caucus, however, all seven board members voted "aye" to awarding the school superintendent a new three-year contract, instead of the usual one-year agreement.

The First National Bank in Madison will continue as depository for Venice School District funds, it was decided.

The bank served as depository when raises were authorized. Hartman will receive $350 per month and Phillips will be paid $175 per month.

In assuming the board presidency, the Rev. Bailey said, "I will try to do my best to make the best president I can. I hope for cooperation from everyone."

Tolliver, speaking prior to relinquishing the post of president, said of Taylor, "He has served responsibly and well as a board member for over 13 years and has done a fine job for us."

"This doesn't mean that he won't be back, as I think he will. I'd personally like to thank you, Elmer."

"Mr. Taylor has served on practically every committee and has been very helpful to the board over the years."

Tolliver responded by thanking Taylor and the other board members, saying "I have enjoyed working with you and wished that I could have continued."

Later, Taylor told a Press-Record reporter he planned to "try for a school board post" in a subsequent election.

Tolliver said that Fichte "has been an active committee member since joining the board three years ago, noting that the past three years "there has been some hard times. He said Fichte's declining to run again for office involved building a new home in preparation of retiring.

Fichte said he had enjoyed working with the board and appreciated the cooperation he has received. "I hate to leave you," he added.

In other business of the new board, the Rev. Bailey appointed Tolliver, Boushard and Glasper as members of the Personnel Committee. He Worthen the highest number of votes of any candidate at the Lincoln Place Community Center and at the Wilson Park Ice Rink.

Gabriel had the most votes at the final precinct to report, the Nameoki Recreation Center, but the edge there was not enough to give him a victory.

At the Lincoln Place Community Center, where 150 votes were cast, Worthen received 89 votes, Loman 75 and Gabriel 29.

At the ice rink, Worthen led with 288 votes, Loman had 230 and Gabriel, 139. There were 435 ballots cast at the ice rink.

In the largest precinct turnout, the Nameoki Recreation Center, where 660 votes were cast, Worthen tallied 341, Loman 336 and Gabriel led that precinct with 353.

Gabriel, an architect and businessman, has been a member of the park board since January 1969 and was elected president in June of that year.

He has served as president since that time. Numerous improvements have initiated in recent years, including purchase of the Nameoki Recreation Center, new tennis courts, concession stands and lighted ball diamonds, added recreational programs, improvement of existing facilities, additions to parks and improved accounting procedures.

Worthen, who has been active in park baseball, volleyball, basketball, flag football and softball activities, has pledged to be a participant in park programs and a board member will be "close to the people involved in park activities."

Worthen's grandfather, William Milton Worthen, was an original member of the park board and served for 52 years.

Loman, vice-president of the Granite City Park Board and previously president for 10 years, has played an active role in the growth of the park system while serving on the board for the last 26 years.

He also has been active in the community, including the United Way, Red Cross, Cancer Society, Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, Cahokia Mount Council of Boy Scouts and numerous other groups.

Loman has been associated with Granite City Trust and Savings Bank for 37 years and is a vice-president. He was chairman of the city's 75th anniversary observations in 1971.

promised other committee appointments will be announced shortly.

Approval was given to payment of monthly bills for Venice schools and Venice-Lincoln Technical Center; requisitions submitted for materials from both schools; and to continue a subscription to Federal Focus, published by the American Association of School Administrators, costing $50 per year.

Plaques were authorized to be made for presentation to Taylor, Fichte, Burger and Pat McCosky, who has retired after serving as secretary to the superintendent of schools for 17 years.

A $5 bid from Tom Voloski Catering on a 10-burner stove was accepted, providing the stove is removed by the bidder.

Formal meetings of the board were left at the first and third Wednesday of each month, pending deliberations at a later date, after the question was raised whether two meetings a month is necessary.

An electrical malfunction in a newly acquired deep freeze unit at Venice School during Easter recess resulted in the loss of $246 worth of food, Supt. Vickers advised the board.

At the present time, Vickers said, the company from which the unit was purchased has declined responsibility for the loss.

Under the Non-Food Assistance program, 75 per cent of the purchase cost of the deep freezer and new stove will be reimbursed to the Venice district, the superintendent said.

Sacred Heart PTO paper drive

Sacred Heart Parent-Teacher Organization (PTO) will sponsor a paper drive on the school grounds, 2606 Washington Ave., Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The public is being invited to participate by bringing papers to the site.

Plans for the event were finalized at the April meeting of the PTO. Several parents volunteered to pick up papers and cardboard at private homes, if necessary.

Persons willing to donate quantities of paper to the drive may contact the school for pick up service.

In other business, the group learned a special 11:30 a.m. Mass will be celebrated Sunday, May 15, honoring Sister Mary Karla, who is leaving the post of principal at Sacred Heart Parochial School after six years. A reception will follow the Mass, it was announced.

Mrs. Kathy Ellis, physical education teacher, volunteered to prepare games for the School Children's Field Day on May 25. Parents were encouraged to take an active part in the May 12 election meeting and in other school activities.

A nominating committee was chosen to prepare a slate of officers for presentation at the next meeting.

The attendance trophy for April was awarded to Sister Justa's room, and Mrs. Kathy Waligarski received a special prize.

Refreshments were served by the fourth grade room mothers.

Richard Olivers mark 25th year

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Oliver, 2013 Clark Ave., were honored during the weekend at a reception and dance in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary.

The affair was held at the Creve Coeur Country Club in St. Louis County. More than 100 friends and relatives greeted the honorees.

Among the guests were Mrs. Albert (Florence) Gauster of Creve Coeur, Mrs. Oliver's mother, and the couple's two children, David and Diane Oliver.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver were married April 19, 1952, at St. Paul United Church of Christ in Creve Coeur.

Nu Zeta plans Founders day

Mrs. Judy Haven, president of Nu Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, announced the Founder's Day observance is set for Wednesday, April 27, during a meeting held Tuesday night.

Hosting the session was Mrs. Margie Williams in her home, 2118 Johnson Road.

Several members met with other chapters from Belleville on Monday night at Fischer's Restaurant, Belleville, to discuss plans for Founders Day. They left scrapbooks and yearbooks for judging and noted the winning chapter will be announced at the event.

Chapter members also voted by secret ballot for the "girl of the year" which will be disclosed at the affair, Mrs. Haven reported.

After the meeting each member presented a baby picture, used for a special type auction.

The hostess served a dessert course to Carol Moerlein, Laura McIlvoy, Barbara Birchler, Amy Brasfield, Leoma Macke, Lynette Cook, Linda McKechan, Sherry Whaley and Cheryl Barton. Mrs. Moerlein will host the May 3 meeting.

spoiled. There were 28 write-in votes.

Second Ward Alderman-elect Dutko will be seated at the Tuesday, May 3, council meeting as he will continue to serve as chief of police until May 1. Dutko then will retire from police work after 27 years with the Madison Police Department.

Dutko's election was his first bid for public office. He will replace Second Ward Alderman Richard Kismar who did not seek re-election as Kismar is moving to Granite City.

Gordon ran unopposed in the Third Ward. He is replacing Ray Kozielek who did not seek re-election after serving as an alderman for 20 years.

All elected officials were members of the Better Government Party and endorsed by the Madison City Organization.

After the official canvass was completed, Mayor Sasyk administered the oath of office to City Clerk Belicoff.

Belicoff then called forward all of the officials elected Tuesday, except Chief Dutko, and administered to them the oaths of office.

Mayor Sasyk said: "I want to thank everyone for their work, their votes and their support. It is very gratifying to receive the vote we did today."

"We feel we have all worked hard for the citizens of Madison and the vote showed us that the people of Madison did appreciate it."

"We can not and will not sit on our past laurels. In the past seven years we have made several improvements, but we haven't even scratched the surface. During the next council meetings we will discuss more proposals to upgrade our city, businesses and homes."

"Monday we break ground on a new steel plant in our industrial park and within 30 days or so we should be ready to reveal details on yet another industry moving to our city," Sasyk said.

The council chambers packed with well wishers applauded the Mayor's remarks.

Alderman Kozielek addressed the council: "Since this is my last meeting here I want to congratulate those who have just been elected and re-elected. I want to thank everyone and particularly the people in Ward Three who have voted and supported me over the years."

"Serving this city has been a very rewarding experience and I feel I am leaving the council in an atmosphere of friendship. Madison is my home. I will still serve as treasurer for the school district as long as the school board wants me, continue to live in Madison and, who knows, I may run again some day for office."

Alderman Kismar expressed his thanks and appreciation to the voters of the Second Ward. The two retiring aldermen both received applause and words of appreciation for their Child hit by car

Kimberly Jones, 9, of 2507 W. 24th St., was injured when she stepped from the curb into the 2300 block of Rock Road and was struck by the eastbound auto of Nancy Morgan, Rural Route Two, Box 1015, Granite City, at 3:35 p.m. Monday.

Witnesses said the car was only going about 10 miles-per-hour when the girl stepped into the street and the car skidded into her.

The young girl was taken by Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was treated for injuries to her forehead, right elbow and both knees. X-rays were taken and she was released.

Following the council meeting a crowd of well over 200 persons attended a "victory party" held in the Firemen's Hall given by the Good Fellowship Club of Madison, the political name of the city organization.

Bridick named Madison chief

By WALTER STRANGE
Press-Record Staff Writer

Donald L. Bridick, 37, of 1125 McCambridge Ave., Madison, has been appointed chief of police of Madison, effective May 1.

Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk made the appointment at the Tuesday night City Council meeting.

On a motion by Third Ward Alderman Ron Grzywacz, seconded by Second Ward Alderman Donal Broyles, the council by a unanimous vote approved the appointment.

Chief of Police Frank Dutko will retire May 1 after 27 years on the Madison police department. Dutko will be seated on the council as Second Ward alderman on Tuesday, May 3.

Bridick has been a member of the Madison Police Department for seven years and holds an associate degree in law enforcement from Bellevue Area College.

He is a member of the Madison County Juvenile Officers Association, Illinois Police Association, and the Police Benevolent Association. Bridick has been active in community affairs and is past treasurer and president of the Madison Lions Club. He also is a member of Madison Amvets Post 204.

Bridick and his wife, Karen, are members of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

Bridick, currently the Madison juvenile officer, was one of the original organizers of Explorer Post 10-4 sponsored by Madison Police Unit 110 and served three years as post adviser.

Bridick received the news of his appointment at 10:10 p.m. Tuesday as he was called off patrol. When Bridick walked in the police department lobby he was greeted by Mayor Sasyk and Granite City Police Chief Ronald Veizer.

Bridick said he appreciated the appointment and wanted to thank the City Council and Mayor Sasyk.

The new chief said that it will be some time before any operational changes are made as he wants to discuss departmental improvements and meet with the mayor, aldermen and other knowledgeable persons.

Five are sentenced

Five persons have been sentenced to probation, jail or prison sentences in Madison County Circuit Court.

Jerry L. Goodwin, 36, of 31 Iris Court, Pontoon Beach, who was found guilty by a jury of aggravated battery, has been sentenced by Circuit Judge William Beatty to serve one to three years in prison.

Goodwin was found guilty of shooting Thomas Earl Wetzel, 37, East Alton, Dec. 13 at the Spartan Service Station on Highway 111 south of Highway 162. Wetzel recuperated from a gunshot wound to his right wrist.

Judge Beatty also sentenced Charles Edward Kern, 36, Fairview Heights, to serve two to six years in prison, concurrent with a federal prison term he began serving in Springfield, Mo., yesterday.

Kern pleaded guilty to conspiracy for allegedly attempting to sell stolen autos to undercover agents of the Illinois Bureau of Investigation or the U.S. Treasury Department, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms.

The federal conviction is on a violation of the federal gun control act, authorities said.

Kern was among a dozen persons arrested here Jan. 7 in a series of coordinated arrests stemming from an ATF investigation between March 1976 and January of 1977.

The ATF agents operated Ed's Swap Shop in North Venice, purchasing stolen guns and other items and gathering information which led to arrest warrants being prepared against more than 15 persons.

Circuit Judge Moses W. Harrison II has ordered probation for three of 10 persons arrested Jan. 17 following an undercover drug operation conducted by the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwestern Illinois (MEGSI).

Teresa Nagel, 21, of the 2100 block of Fourteenth St., has been sentenced to serve two years probation, the first six months in the Madison County Jail in Edwardsville, after she pleaded guilty to delivery of a controlled substance.

Arrested the same day in connection with the MEGSI investigation were Adolph Ponder, 24, and Linda Ponder, 28, both of the 1700 block of Maple St., both of whom also pleaded guilty to unlawful delivery of a controlled substance.

Adolph Ponder was sentenced to serve one year probation and Linda Ponder was sentenced to serve six months of probation.

"fix the compensation of such personnel."

Copies of the opinion were distributed to the aldermen by City Attorney George Filcoff who told council members that "under this opinion you have not been following your full legal duty in setting these salary schedules and job requirements of the assessor's office."

Filcoff said that he distributed the copies of the attorney general's opinion "so that you will be aware of this and consider what steps you want to take to comply with the law."

In past years administration of the assessor's office has been handled solely by the assessor, including employee appointments and salary scales. The Town Board has appointed the attorney and auditor for the township government.

Mayor Paul Schuler said after Tuesday night's meeting that appointment of deputies and clerks in the assessor's office and fixing those salaries "is just something the Town Board hasn't done in the past, although the law has always been there."

Schuler said that since it is the law, "I am sure we (as the Town Board) will do something to implement the legal requirement."

Cruse, however, attributed the issue to "politics," and said any move to control his office results from the recent election campaign.

"Somebody's mad at me," Cruse said. "I don't know what I could have done to elect those five fellows (incumbent council members defeated in the April 5 election)."

"I have served as assessor for 13 years and they (Town Board members) have never bothered with this before. If they want to handle the hiring in my office, let them come on down."

The attorney general's opinion, issued Nov. 22, 1976, was prepared by Scott at the request of Frank A. Kirk who was director of the Illinois Department of Local Government Affairs. Kirk had asked if a township assessor has the exclusive power to employ and fix the compensation of deputy assessors, clerks and secretaries, or whether this power was subject to the consent of the township board of auditors.

Scott said that the question arose apparently because of an inconsistency of language in one section of the state law, as compared with two other sections. The first article he said, failed to establish the method of determining employment and salary for assessor employees, although it does mention that the assessor's office is "excluded" from Town Board action in determination of salaries and employees or other divisions of the township government.

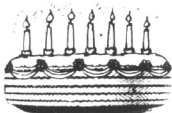

But in two sections of the Illinois Revenue Act, Scott said, action of the Town Board in setting salaries and confirming employees of the assessor's office is clearly defined.

He said Section 21 of the revenue act states that a town assessor may "... with the advice and consent of the town board of auditors first obtained, appoint one or more suitable persons to act as deputies to assist him ... and such clerks and secretaries as may be required for operation of his office."

Section 24 of the revenue act, Scott said, provides that "Necessary deputy assessors shall receive such compensation as is fixed by the board of town auditors."

How serious is rapid heartbeat?

By WILLIAM J. GOLDWAG, M.D.

Q. I see very few articles on tachycardia. So far as I can find out, mine is caused by sympathetic nervous system. I don't want to keep on taking drugs (Inderal). I don't drink alcohol, coffee, tea or cola. I don't eat sugar and take food supplements. Any suggestions would be welcome. I am 67 years old.

A. Tachycardia simply means rapid heartbeat (over 100 per minute at rest). Everyone gets a tachycardia during exercise or excitement or nervousness. Some people experience bursts of rapid heartbeat even when at rest (called paroxysms) and it may be an evenly spaced series of beats or very irregularly spaced.

Sometimes an electrocardiogram is needed to tell the difference and also to see if the upper half of the heart (atria) is where the rapid beats are coming from or if it is the more serious problem of the lower chambers (ventricles) that are the source of the trouble.

Young people can tolerate very rapid heartbeat (160 or 180 per minute) with little serious effect on their body but older people, particularly if their circulation is poor to start with, may get serious symptoms from rapid rates lasting several hours. Angina or heart pain from the overworking muscle or faintness and poor brain circulation can occur from the lowered output of blood from the rapidly beating heart. Eventually heart failure can occur if the muscle is weak.

Frequent smoking or excess stimulants like coffee can aggravate tachycardia attacks. If Inderal controls them, you may have to continue this treatment rather than suffer the risks of frequent uncontrolled episodes.

With practice, progressive relaxation exercises can quiet the sympathetic nervous system (the one activated by stress and tension). This may decrease the frequency of attacks or shorten one in progress.

Q. Does mouth wash work? Does mouth wash kill germs, etc., in a mouth or do Canadians spend money on garbage?

A. This question came from two seventh graders in Thompson, Canada, but it could equally apply anywhere in the United States or wherever advertising is seen on TV or in newspapers and magazines.

There is some germ-killing action in mouth wash but it isn't too strong. Anything powerful enough to kill off most germs in the mouth

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Hit rear of truck

A Troy couple was injured when their auto struck the rear of a Hoeffken Brothers Construction Co. dump truck on Route 162 near Stallings School at 1:20 p.m. Tuesday.

David Littlehale, 52, Troy, was charged by Madison County sheriff's deputies with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident on wet pavement. Littlehale and his wife, Mrs. Nona Littlehale, 53, were taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was admitted for observation with neck pain and small cuts to her forehead.

David Littlehale was treated for back pains and a bruise to his forehead. X-rays were taken and he was released.

would be too dangerous to swallow or have too many side effects to be safe.

But, what purpose would there be in doing that anyway? In a few minutes new bacteria would start growing as usual. Since most of the germs are "friendly" you would not be helping a person to be healthier either. The good ones can keep the bad ones from growing too fast.

The major value of mouth washes is to make your mouth feel cool and fresh and make your breath smell sweet for a few minutes anyway. The same thing holds true for many household germ killers.

Penny Marshall's life has become overly busy

By DICK MAURICE

HOLLYWOOD — Penny Marshall lets her hair down and takes an inward look at

Sentenced to jail term

Retha Corrie, 25, of 64 Venice Homes, Venice, was sentenced Monday at 4:10 p.m. to serve 45 days in the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville after she pleaded guilty to two counts of criminal damage to property. It is alleged she became angry at employees in the emergency room of St. Elizabeth Hospital early this week and went outside to the 21st Street sidewalk where she picked up a brick and broke two windows of the hospital.

She also was charged with breaking a window at the Granite City School of Beauty Culture a few days earlier.

After allegedly breaking the windows at the hospital, she went to Madison Avenue and obtained a ride from a passing motorist.

A Madison County sheriff's deputy said he found her in a cemetery in Edwardsville and took her back to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was arrested.

EXPERT APPRAISING

herself. In this "On The Couch" interview, Penny reveals her private personality and the truth comes out... often in surprising, revealing and very funny ways.

Maurice: How would you describe yourself?
Marshall: Scared, frightened, not without talent, and, I don't know — just an ordinary, regular, sick person.

Maurice: How has the success of "Laverne & Shirley" changed your life?
Marshall: I don't have the time to enjoy the things that I like doing. I don't have time to see as many friends as I used to and I miss seeing them. I don't see my child often enough. I don't see Rob (Reiner from "All In The Family") often enough. We're on different schedules. I like to do jigsaw puzzles and stuff, which is a total waste of time but I like it. I haven't been in a store for so long that I forget what one looks like.

Maurice: Is there anything you tend to be vain about?
Marshall: I don't deal with that at all. I don't like to look in mirrors. I don't like what I see. I expect another vision but it's always me.

Maurice: What do you expect when you look in the mirror?
Marshall: It's very strange. On the show, the makeup people and the hairdresser spend hours working on you. They set it, they spray it, they comb it, people put makeup all over you. I expect to look like Elizabeth Taylor. But it's me — with makeup and my hair done. It's the same face and it's there all the time.

Maurice: Don't you think as an actress you should have a sort of self-love confidence going for you?

Marshall: I don't know where it comes from or how I get to it. It happens and I can't explain it. The writers don't like to hear when I give them my lecture that I am not an actress and I don't know how to act. They can't understand that what I'm saying is that I don't know how to do it. I'm not an actress I keep telling them. I do what I do and I don't consider it acting, sometimes, it's silly and neurotic but it is also true.

Maurice: What do you do that really annoys Rob?

Marshall: Smoke. He's not too thrilled with that. And I worry. He doesn't like to see me worrying and feeling down a lot, cause he says, "You've got everything going for you now. Don't worry about it. I'm already worried about my downhill slide from stardom. He says, 'You just got there! You're crazy.'"

Maurice: Do you worry about your age?

Marshall: Only lately from doing the series, 'cause we're playing 22-year-olds and I'm long past that age. We're supposed to be playing vibrant 22-year-olds and the cameramen keep telling me that I look very tired and the rings are beginning to show under my eyes. It worries me 'cause I look like I've had it.

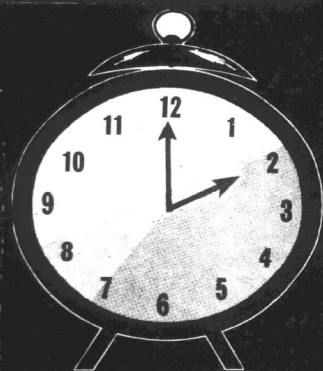

PENNY MARSHALL

Maurice: When you were 21 or 22, were those happy days?

Marshall: I was married with a kid. Those days weren't bad. I had dropped out of college and I was having a good time. I didn't know what depression or anxiety meant until I came out to Lotus Land. It was here that I learned about analysis and all that. I think that screwed me up more than anything. I was getting along just fine until I came out here and everyone had to see a psychiatrist. You had to go to one. And now I'm crazy.

Steelerettes 3rd in meet

Host East St. Louis Senior garnered 78 points Tuesday in winning a triangular girls' track and field meet in which Alton was second with 54 points and GCHS North third with 32.

Steelerette pointmakers included: Discus—Connie Morrison 1st (109-1); long jump—Dawn Ford 2nd, Rhonda Schilling 3rd; shot put—Tina Taylor 1st (34 feet).

High jump—Chris Fabisher 4th; 80 low hurdles—Kay Marcum 2nd; 100 dash—Rhonda Schilling 3rd; Dawn Ford 4th; 880 run—Pam Hall 1st (2:44.8); 440 dash—Barb Miller 3rd; 110 low hurdles—Kay Marcum 2nd; and 220 dash—Marcie Bunch 4th.

Wesclin wins by 6-3

The Steeler baseball team of GCHS North played host Tuesday to Wesclin High of Trenton, losing 6-3 to the visitors.

Doug Rains started for North and Russ Chappell relieved in the seventh inning. North took a 2-0 lead in the third when Kevin Hayes drew a walk and Bruce Wright tripled and scored on a groundout, but Wesclin deked out in the fourth frame.

The Steelers edged ahead with a run in the fifth as Wright doubled, Rains singled and Wright scored on a throwing error (following a bunt by Dan Harper). But the visitors garnered two runs in each of the sixth and seventh innings.

JANSSEN APPOINTED BY BUSINESS FEDERATION
Announcement has been made of the appointment of Lee Janssen of Chas. Todd, Inc., Granite City, as an action council member of the National Federation of Independent Business.

MISS ANNELIEN SMITH, a past president of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club and coordinator of the Individual Development Program for area clubs, displays the "Leadership Award" plaque presented at the annual Public Relations—Awards Night dinner party last evening at Charlie's Restaurant. Miss Smith will be appointed state membership chairman for the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs at its annual convention which starts today in Chicago.

Lake School carnival set May 6

Pat Withers, president of Lake School PTA, led a discussion on the forthcoming school carnival and the junkyard playground at the monthly meeting held Tuesday night. Mrs. Faye Hester led the PTA prayer and Miss Jans Melchior and David Johnson submitted the secretary and treasurer report, respectively.

Mrs. Brenda Withers reported that plans for the annual Spring Carnival were underway, but that more game-booth workers were needed. Also needed are more cakes for the cake walk. The Carnival will be held on May 6 from 6 to 9 p.m.

Withers reported that two earth-mover tires were installed on April 2 as the first phase of the school's "junkyard playground." A three-tiered beam will be the next phase to be completed, under the direction of Miss Melchior, the school's gym teacher. Volunteering to do the work were Virgil Ware, Roy Massey, and James Reynolds.

Officers were elected for the 1977-78 school year. They are David Johnson, president, Mrs. Kathy Lane, vice-president, Mrs. Faye Hester, secretary, and Mrs. Staretta Johnson, treasurer. They will be installed at the May meeting.

A legislative report was given by Ed Gonsky, legislative chairman and principal of the school. He reported that 89 bills concerning Illinois schools were filed prior to the April 1 adjournment of the legislature, one of which was Bill No. 1364 filed by Representative Taylor of Chicago in which it would be required that a student be tested and proven able to read, write, and to have a reasonable mastery of math before entering high school.

Mrs. Doris Volaw, organizer for Brownies and Girl Scouts spoke to the organization regarding registration for next year. She was available following the meeting for registration of Brownies and Junior Girl Scouts. Withers urged that the "Acres of Fine Arts" exhibit be attended, on Sunday, May 1 from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Granite City High School, South. Lake School PTA donates each year to the art scholarship fund.

Mrs. Janet LeGrand's sixth-grade class won the PTA attendance banner for April, and Mrs. Alma Reynolds was awarded a small silk-flower arrangement, prize.

Following adjournment of the meeting, Miss Melchior's gym classes provided entertainment by performing dances they have been learning. Parents and teachers were asked to join the children in their performances. Refreshments were provided by kindergarten mothers.

2 youths flee

Two youths who were attempting to steal gasoline from an auto were surprised at 9:15 p.m. Wednesday by friends of the intended victim and fled so rapidly one ran out of his shoes and escaped barefooted.

Gloria Harper, 2829 Roosevelt Ave., said she looked out the window and saw one boy in the street looking around and another boy crouched behind her auto.

She and several persons visiting at her home ran outside after the boys and both ran west on Roosevelt Avenue, knocking over two one-gallon milk cartons full of gasoline as they fled.

A garden hose was found going into the victim's gasoline tank and one boy's shoes were found nearby. The Granite City Fire Department was called and washed the gasoline from the street.

South girls 3rd in meet

First through fourth place finishes counted toward team points Monday afternoon during a girls' track and field triangular meet held at the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville field in which Edwardsville earned 79½ points, Stanton 38½ and GCHS South 26.

South High pointmakers included: two-mile run—Sandy Schreiber 1st (15:07); discus—Cindy Jackovich 1st (95-7½); shot put—Barbara Veizer 1st (30 feet).

Mile relay—Clarissa Pollard, Janice McQuaide, Mary Bigham, Brenda Gerkin 2nd; 80 low hurdles—Dana DePew 3rd.

Quarter-mile dash—Brenda Gerkin 4th; two mile—Diane Lewis 4th; 400—Lafara Werthe 4th; mile run—Sandy Schreiber 4th; and discus—Vicky Guth 4th.

Showers bring .64-inch rain since Tuesday

A total of .64 of an inch of rain fell in the Quad-City area in showers since Tuesday, according to records at the Chain of Rocks locks where weather readings are maintained for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. Tuesday morning rainfall measured .15 of an inch, with another .21 of an inch recorded Wednesday morning for a 24-hour period. Another .28 of an inch in rain that fell yesterday and early this morning was recorded at the locks at 8 a.m. today.

The rainfall this week brought to .70 of an inch the total precipitation so far this month. The only previous precipitation recorded this month was .06 of an inch on April 5. Normal fall for April is 3.71 inches. This month's rainfall is in sharp contrast to that in March when a total of 6.72 inches of rain fell during the month, one of the heaviest rainfalls in a single month in recent years. A total of 2.78 inches of rain had fallen at this same time during March, with another 3.94 inches precipitation during the last eight days of the month. Normal fall in March is 2.94 inches.

New symbol at First GC Bank

A new corporate identification of the First Granite City National Bank has been adopted.

Centrally and most prominently featured are the monogram initials "FB," representative of the bank's abbreviated title, "First Bank." At the lower left, 1902 is identified as the year of the original charter of the bank; 1977 marks the 75th year of continuous operation of the bank.

Communities served by the bank, Granite City, Madison, Venice and Ponton Beach, are represented by four stars at the upper right.

Surrounding the periphery is the complete bank name as well as its identity as a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

The new identification will be seen primarily in "blind embossment" as part of a new letterhead for general correspondence stationery and envelopes.

In addition, it will be used in printed form on certain other selected applications.

The lower case "fb" FIRST Granite City National Bank identification will be continued in most general applications, a spokesman said.

WOMAN HURT IN CRASH
Mrs. Josie Seaman, 60, of 2102 Alexander Ave., was injured when her car and the auto of Henry Constant, 2723 Marshall Ave., collided at Nameki Road and Herbert Street at 8:35 p.m. Wednesday, Mrs. Seaman was charged with a right-of-way violation. She was x-rayed at St. Elizabeth Hospital for neck pain and was released.

$600 scholarships

The Granite City Scholarship Foundation, Inc., is now soliciting funds for its 1977 program. The funds are used to encourage and assist high school graduates in continuing their education at accredited colleges and universities.

Application forms for 1977 graduates of the Granite City high schools are being prepared and an increase in scholarship applications is expected.

This year, the scholarships are being increased to $600 from $500. The increase is considered necessary to assist students with rising tuition costs.

Full scholarships on behalf of a donor will be considered $500.

The difference of $100 will be obtained from fractional contributions.

All scholarship candidates are screened and awards are made on the basis of an individual's financial need and scholastic ability. The goal of the Foundation is to assist needy and qualified students to advance themselves and at the same time help them to become more valuable members of the community.

Checks are made payable to the Granite City Scholarship Foundation, and are mailed to Robert Spengler, treasurer, 3666 Terrace Lane.

Chouteau town board to be seated Monday

The current Chouteau Town Board of Auditors met for the final time Monday night and agreed to allow the newly-elected board to be seated Monday, April 26, at 7 p.m.

Trustee Jim Greer, who was defeated in his bid for re-election made his final statement as a member of the current board, saying he wished the new board well and enjoyed working with the other trustees and township officials.

The board approved bills to the building contractors and subcontractors totaling $2,215, bringing to $122,619 the amount paid on the total contract, thus far.

The trustees were given a report showing that 60.35 percent of the $203,168 now has been paid from community development and federal revenue sharing funds.

Bills paid Monday night included $1,999 to Wilson Construction Co. of Godfrey, $235 to Wegman Electric and $281 to John Rapp, the building's architect.

Bills totaling about $1,380 also were approved as payment in full for expenses of the April 5 election, including judges and polling places.

Time slips requesting overtime pay for several high-way employees were discussed and payment was held-over pending investigation whether the slips might be in error. Some board members felt the overtime already had been paid for the period submitted.

GC vote unchanged by council canvass

A canvass of the results of the Granite City and Granite City Township election April 5 was conducted during the council's regular meeting Tuesday night and showed no change from the results recorded by the city clerk election night.

It was noted that the newly-elected city treasurer, Nick Petrillo, received 5,206 votes as the official tally, but different than the 5,551 votes recorded on the unofficial tally which was announced that night.

The resolution establishing the canvass figures and listing the winners as duly-elected officials was passed unanimously by the council. They will be seated May 3.

The final vote tally, as verified by the canvass, follows: For mayor — Paul Schuler 6,231 votes, Daniel Partey 5,140. For city clerk — Robert W. Stevens, 7,846, Norma Mendoza 3,315.

For city treasurer — Petrillo 5,206, Ronald Coleman 3,486, Russell Robinson 2,363. For township supervisor — Nelson Hagnauer 6,631, Richard Allen

For alderman — Ward One, Charlie Douglas 406, William Dallas 446; Ward Two, Fred P. Schuman Jr. 736, Frank Greenwood 510, Randall R. Hill 411.

Ward Three, Roy Poulos 754, Walt Padgett 580; Ward Four, Glen Sprankie 789, Robert "Leo" Wofford 723, Robert L. Strubberg 183, Foster Frederick 181.

Ward Five (four-year term), Lloyd H. Bailey 700, Steve Basarich 593, (two year term) Mrs. Margaret Nomm 625, Curtis Blevins 473, Gary Barnstable 157, Tommy Ray Taylor 68.

Ward Six, Earl Baker 1,034, Woodrow Moad 940; Ward Seven, Paul Ray Bowler 757, George Gordon 585, Tom Baker 496 and Thomas J. Skubish 420.

All the winners will serve four-year terms, with the exception of Mrs. Nomm who was elected for a two-year unexpired term of her late husband, Walter F. Nomm.

STATE OFFERS HOLIDAY SHORES SEWER GRANT

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency announced this week that $1,565,400 is being offered to the Holiday Shores Sanitary District as part of the agency's sewage system construction grant program. To obtain the grant, the district must accept it by May 1.

The grant is for second and third steps of the Holiday Shores sewage treatment works project, consisting of the design and construction for a complete new sanitary sewer collection system, with interceptor sewers and a sewerage treatment facility. Total eligible cost of the project is estimated to be $2,087,200. The district will provide $201,800, or 25 per cent.

Incumbents re-elected in Venice

Venice Mayor William Ebersoldt and all incumbents seeking re-election were returned to office in the Tuesday election in Venice.

William Griggs, running for the first time as city treasurer, was unopposed. Griggs is replacing Henry Baucum who did not seek re-election as treasurer.

Third Ward Alderman John Ervin was the only candidate with opposition. Unofficial returns gave Ervin 314 votes to Mrs. Helen Ruth King's 59. Unofficial returns in Wards One through Four show:

Mayor William Ebersoldt 175; City Clerk Lloyd Patterson 175-257-296-256; total 982; City Treasurer William Griggs 174-251-301-258, total 984.

Ward One E. Harry Buente 175; Ward Two, Hank A. Svezia 259; Ward Four Tyrone Echols 263.

A total of 1,129 votes was cast with 37 spoiled ballots and write-in votes.

The official canvass will take place at the Venice council meeting Tuesday, April 26, at City Hall.

Price co-sponsoring Social Security bills

Rep. Melvin Price of this district is the co-sponsor of two bills currently pending in Congress designed to aid Social Security recipients — particularly those receiving retirement benefits — in coping with the problems of inflation.

The two pieces of legislation which Price is co-sponsoring with Rep. Bob Traxler of Michigan are currently before the House Committee on Ways and Means.

The first bill calls for development and regular publication of a separate consumer price index for senior citizens, to accompany the monthly consumer price index now issued by the Department of Labor and used to determine the shape of the economy.

The second bill, Price said, provides for automatic semi-annual cost-of-living adjustments for Social Security recipients.

Currently, Social Security recipients are given an annual adjustment while Civil Service retirees are given two cost-of-living increases per year.

Rep. Price said that more than 100 Members of Congress are co-sponsoring the bills.

Mrs. Phoenix dies at 73

Mrs. Dagmar Phoenix, 73, of Anaheim, Calif., formerly of Granite City, died Tuesday morning at her home.

She was born in Latvia and resided in Granite City over 20 years prior to moving to California two years ago. While residing here, Mrs. Phoenix was a member of Peace Lutheran Church.

Survivors include her husband, Kurt Phoenix; two daughters, Mrs. Esther Weiser of Beaumont, Tex., Mrs. Inga Franden of New Orleans, La.; one son, Dieter Phoenix of Anaheim; nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted on Friday in California.

One hundred and fifty student couples and 10 faculty couples will attend. Cost of the prom is $24 per couple.

Triumphant Trojan basketball season of '76-77 is recalled

By KEN THOMPSON
Press-Record Staff Writer
A poem which sparked the term "March madness" throughout Illinois, written by former Illinois High School Association Executive Secretary H. V. Porter in 1942, reads in part:
"The gym lights gleam like a beacon beam
"And a million motors hum,
"In a good will fight on a Friday night,
"For basketball beckons 'Come!'
"A sharp-shooting mite is king tonight,
"The madness of March is running,
"The winged feet fly; the ball sails high
"And field goal hunters are

For Coach Larry Graham, Assistant Coaches John Pakus and David Hodges, and the Madison High School basketball team — all honored during the weekend at a sports banquet — "March madness" started with the beginning of the 1976-77 season last November.
It grew to "fever heights" as Trojans field goal hunters found their marks.
THE MHS team defeated 29 foes while losing only three times enroute to capturing this season's Class A state basketball championship at Champaign.
Madison High Principal Norman R. Corbin told the more than 300 persons gathered at the Venice-Madison American Legion Post 307, "When the stars rises in the east, people start to feel something."

He continued, "Two or three games before the regional tournament we began to suspect that this team was on its way to Champaign."
Madison's record included narrow losses to Lebanon, Quincy Notre Dame and Livingston. The Trojans later avenged two of them by beating Lebanon 72-70 and then Livingston 76-57 in the Vandalia sectional tournament.
Following the team's third loss of the season — 78-72 to Livingston on Feb. 1 — Madison put together 14 consecutive victories, including sweeping the state series at Champaign.
"We were never out of contention in any of our losses," said Coach Graham.
"I knew on Jan. 8 when we went to Quincy and lost to Notre Dame by six points (75-69) that we were going places."

He explained that a championship team possesses not only the ability to stay with an opponent on the scoreboard, but also the ability to bounce back from almost insurmountable odds.
"We were down by more than 20 points in the third quarter at Quincy and staged a tremendous comeback in the final period."
State Senator Sam Vadalabene, while presenting the school with a resolution passed by the Illinois Senate recognizing Madison's accomplishment, commented, "Sportsmanship guides the American system."
"And the system thrives from the satisfaction of a job well done."

State Representative Jim McPike of Alton watched the players' faces glow when he told them, "You are the envy of every high school basketball player in the state."
"You perhaps will feel the importance of your feats more many years from now when this season is related to your children and grandchildren."
McPike gave as an example professional cager "Pistol" Pete Maravich, "who still cites as his fondest memory during his career when he scored 50 points in a game while in college, including the winning basket at the buzzer."

Maravich and his Louisiana State University squad were trailing by one point with four seconds showing on the clock when the player dribbled toward his team's bench and released a long shot toward the hoop.
The ball went through the net as the buzzer sounded and while Maravich was sitting down, the speaker related.
"Don't be modest," recommended guest speaker Gayle Sayers, a Hall-of-Fame ball carrier.

"Your accomplishments have brought glory and honor to you, your school and your city."
"My football career accomplishments were yesterday. Today and the future belongs to all of you players."

Sayers concluded with, "Seize upon the many opportunities awaiting you in the near future. But never forget your parents and coaches who have played important roles in forming you into championship athletes."
"And 10 years from now, I hope you can find the time to help and guide other athletes seeking a place in life."

HONORS FROM VENICE. Memories of another Class A state championship basketball team perhaps run through the mind of Venice Mayor William "Mike" Ebersold (left) as he presents an award to Madison High School Coach Larry Graham from the Venice City Council, citing the Trojans' 1977 state championship. The Venice High team captured the same honor two years earlier. Mayor Ebersold later presented each player with a miniature replica of the team's state title trophy.

Althoff wins 6-1 at North

A singles match win by Steeler Larry Miller on Monday at GCHS North prevented his team from being shut out as Belleville Althoff won 6-1.
Miller defeated his tennis opponent 6-1, 6-4 while Rodney Worthen lost 4-6, 5-7, Mike Sherman 2-6, 0-6 and Dean Rochester 6-7, 2-6.
Althoff won in doubles 2-6, 6-3, 1-6 over Worthen-Mike Sherman, 1-6, 1-6 over Miller-Bob Coreaux, and 2-6, 6-7 over Mike Miller-Kevin Marcus.

foreground and clockwise) are Rodney Davis, Lawrence London, James Heard, DeRodney Crochrell, John Lake, a student manager, and — across the table — Sylvester Collins, Clayton Harris, Lloyd Williams, Anthony King and Randall Jones. Trojan players not shown are Kenny Boyd, Ron Harris, Eric and Ken Stanley and Ron Williams.

47th Inter-City season to open May 1 with designated hitters; 4 of 8 teams are local Illinois Inter-City Baseball League President Ollie Miller has announced that the league's 1977 season will begin May 1, with eight teams playing for the 47th annual title.

The four local squads, comprised of athletes aged 16 and over, are: defending champion Mercer Mortuary, Bob Thomas Memorial Mortuary and "rookie" teams Mitchell Athletic Club and J&J Liquors.

Coaches for the four are Wendell Corey of Mercer, Jim Brawley of Thomas, Ron Madden of Mitchell and Jim Croner of J&J.

Other teams slated to participate are Panama, East Alton Vans, Wood River Brewers and Highland-Pierson. Miller, league president since 1968, comments that eight teams are not unusual for the Inter-City circuit.

"It has varied over the years. When the league was formed by the late Vernon Lucas of Maryville back in 1931, we started with 12 squads," Miller recalled.

He noted that of the present eight Mercer has represented the Quad-Cities for the longest period of time, having joined in 1960.

For the first time since the league was founded, board members have approved a designated hitter rule for the 1977 season. The hitter will bat instead of the pitcher and will have no position to field on defense.

Fourteen regular season playing dates have been set this year, with all involving doubleheaders starting at 1 p.m.

Mercer and Thomas will play their home games at William Park; Mitchell AC will stage its home contests on the Mitchell diamond and J&J will host teams at the Grigsby Junior High School diamond.

The Inter-City baseball schedule:

MAY
1—Mercer at Thomas

Miller said the team holding the top spot in league standings as of July 1 also will participate in a "tournament of champions" in St. Louis County on July 3.

Baker Illinois coach of year

Granite City High School South's Gene Baker, Warrior soccer mentor who has led teams to the Illinois High School Association state finals three times since taking charge in the fall of 1973, has been named Illinois coach of the year by members of the National High School Athletic Coaches Association (NHSCA) at Orlando, Fla.

The honor bestowed on Baker qualifies him as one of eight nationwide coaches to be considered by a National Awards Committee of the NHSCA for national high school coach of the year, to be announced at a 12th annual awards banquet June 22 in Hampton, Va.

Coaches and athletic directors from each state representing 12 high school sports areas—athletic directors, football, basketball, track, baseball, girls' sports, wrestling, swimming, golf, cross-country, tennis and soccer—were considered for national recognition.

Factors included evaluation of high school career or administrative excellence, coaching performance and professional services to either high school or professional or athletic programs.

Baker formerly was soccer coach at Missouri's Riverview High School for five years. His squads there posted a 64-20 record.

In 1973, aided by Assistant Coach Mel Bunting, he guided the Warriors to third place in the state tournament.

GCHS South failed to reach state competition in 1974, but in 1975 Baker and his charges won the state title.

"His achievements are a product of the school system, student body, faculty and parents," he concluded.

"Citizens and sports fans of Granite City and the state of Illinois certainly must be proud of the great job Coach Baker has done with youths through athletics," commented the National Association executive director, Carey E. McDonald.

"The season will start Saturday, May 14, with an annual parade through the streets of Granite City."

A park district spokesman notes that the program will be short 30 players and two teams if volunteer managers are not located this month.

Persons interested in managing a second-year Atom Division team, for boys aged nine, and a second-year Juvenile Division team, boys aged 15, are being urged to contact the park office at 877-3059.

Park officials believe "tee-ball" allows for improved batting and fielding development in the younger age bracket.

Boys 6, 7 years old launching soccer play

Approximately 200 Quad-City area boys, representing 16 teams, will participate in a phase of the Tri-City Area YMCA Soccer Association's spring program with games at two locations—the Steeler and St. Elizabeth fields—starting Saturday.

Six teams comprise a Junior Pee Wee division for boys aged six, and 10 teams make up a Senior Pee Wee division for boys aged seven.

The two-division season will continue through May 22, with competition being held each weekend.

Six other divisions, composed of players aged eight to 13, completed their month-long 1977 spring schedule last weekend—Junior Atom, Senior Atom, Junior Midget and Senior Midget.

The Pee Wee divisions have been added to the spring soccer program to allow beginning soccer players to gain experience in the sport before entering competition as Atom players.

Players and coaches in all divisions will be honored for a later date during an awards banquet.

Junior Pee Wee Division (Steeler Field 2)
Team One vs. Team Two 4 p.m.
Senior Pee Wee Division (Steeler Field 2)

Track Trojans still in winning form, 91-38

Coach Charles Steptoe's Madison High School track team, fresh from capturing last weekend's St. Paul invitational meet at Highland, hosted the St. Paul Vikings Monday afternoon, topping the visitors 91-38.

Competing without the services of Marcus White, who is recovering from an illness, and with Duane Bochanski suffering from the flu, the Trojans won 12 events and placed well in others.

Madison pointmakers included: two-mile relay—Robert Booker, Kevin Rogers, Cecil Cross, Ernest Davenport 1st (9:00.5); 440 relay—Bochanski, Sylvester Collins, Daryl Hampton, James Heard 1st (48.9 seconds); 120 high hurdles—Ron Morris 1st (17.8); Alfred Crawford 2nd; 100 dash—Heard 1st (11.0); Carl Hick 1st (24.6); 800 dash—Half-mile run—Booker 2nd, Rogers 3rd; 440 run—Mike Bartley 1st (55.0), Bochanski 3rd.

Fifteen girls' high school track and field teams will gather Saturday morning in the Granite City Stadium on Fehling to participate in the fourth annual GCHS South invitational meet. Belleville West High School will seek top honors for a third straight time in which the ball is placed on a tee and hit without using a pitcher.

Park officials believe "tee-ball" allows for improved batting and fielding development in the younger age bracket.

'Lost weekend' for baseball Cougars

About the only thing you can say about it, from the viewpoint of the Cougars, is that it was a "lost weekend" for the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville baseball team. Coach Roy Lee's baseballers were rudely roughed up as the SIU at Carbondale Salukis swept three games of a doubleheader early this week, 9-2 in seven innings and then 12-3 in nine frames.

Coach Richard "Itchy" Jones, 1974 for the season, used a blitz attack in both games. In the opener, the Salukis jumped at 17 p.m. at the southpaw Steve Ashby, for four runs and coasted in. The Salukis are now 11-1 and winners of six straight.

In the second game, it was more of the same, except that the Salukis batters took a little more time overcoming the Cougars' star right-hander, Jerry Deml. In an advance guard of things to come, SIUC scored a run in the opening frame against Deml without a hit.

In the second inning, the Salukis scored a single tally, this time on a pair of hits. In the third, Carbondale increased its lead to 4-0, and then it chased Deml with another pair of hits.

Auto racing drivers, representing eight Midwest states, and one Southern state will converge on Tri-City Speedway, 5100 Nameoki Road, on Saturday to vie for top honors in a "spring spectacular" 43-lap feature race for late model stock cars.

More than 75 cars and drivers from Wisconsin, Iowa, Kansas, Arkansas, Indiana, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri and Illinois are expected to participate in 25-lap preliminary races in an attempt to earn places in the 30-car starting field on the half-mile dirt oval.

Local area favorites will be on hand to challenge the out-of-state drivers, including Webb Spaulding of Ponton Beach, Russ Wallace of Arnold, Mo., a two-time champion here, Bill Myers of Rosewood Heights and C. C. Corbin of East Alton.

The Cougars shot a 295 on the final 18 holes, the second lowest score for one round. The University of Wisconsin fired a 294 on the final round.

The Wee-ma-tuck Golf Course in Peoria was the site of the Bradley event, where the Cougars also captured second place last year.

"We shot 74.8 as a team, which ties us for our low score in the fall season," commented Gallatin. "We hope we're starting to peak. It's going to be tough to beat Western."

SIUC will get another chance to do just that at the Beau Classic in Macomb on Saturday.

ST. MARY'S CONTRACT SIGNING last week. A new $375,000 parish center to be constructed by St. Mary's Catholic Church, Madison, will include a 110x71x24-foot gymnasium area and a 50x71x12-foot section including a kitchen and shower facilities. One meeting area will seat up to 600 and another up to 100 persons. The exterior will be split-face special white concrete block, and interior surfaces will include prefabricated structural wood. Seated, left to right, are Architect William Pistrui, the Rev. Ralph Scherrer, OFM, pastor, and Contractor Ralph Korte. Standing, from the left, are Andrew Yurko, trustee; Leonard Daiber, project manager; and Mike Mejaski, trustee.

Group backs 5-cent deposit

The Citizens' Environmental Task Force of the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission has sent a letter of support for the Illinois Beverage Container Act.

This legislation would require a minimum of a five-cent deposit on all soft drink and malt beverage containers, a mandatory refund of deposits by all dealers for all brands and sizes that they sell, a ban on the detachable metal "pull tab" (easy open cans would have to be of the button-down or similar variety) and a phase-in period to ease the transition.

All companies would have to reach for full compliance by Jan. 1, 1980. The Task Force said, "The advantages of the resulting system are so compelling that this would have been passed long ago, except for one problem. The deposit-and-return concept is anathema to a container industry which profits from manufacture of 60 billion throwaway cans and bottles annually."

"National brewers also have a sizable stake in continued use of the one-way containers, which allows them to expand their markets and compete against regional beers without having to worry about shipping back empties."

A hearing on HB 730 will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m. on the floor of the House of Representatives, Capitol Building, Springfield.

DIANA EDWARDS IS HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Diana Edwards, 10-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Edwards, 18 Jeanette Drive, has been released from St. Elizabeth Hospital and is recuperating at home.

She sustained injuries to her left arm after being bitten by a cat, according to a family spokesman.

Her grandmother, Mrs. Rose Dowd of Cairo, Ill., was also released from the local hospital and is recovering in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards.

FACES TWO CHARGES

Adrian P. Martinez, 26, of 2616 Angela Drive, was charged with disorderly conduct and with criminal damage to property after he allegedly kicked open a door at the home of Richard Segobriano, 2055 Cleveland Boulevard, and struck Segobriano with a golf club at 1 p.m. Tuesday.

Segobriano suffered cuts to his left arm while fighting off the attack and pushing Martinez back outside, he alleged.

Rites Tuesday for William O. Cline

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at an Anna, Ill., funeral home for William O. Cline, 80, of Jonesboro, Ill., a former resident of Granite City.

Prior to moving to Jonesboro 20 years ago, Mr. Cline owned and operated an ice and coal business. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Mary Cline; two daughters, Mrs. Elise Jones of St. Louis and Mrs. Violet Mayberry of Jonesboro; one son, Floyd Cline of Jonesboro; three sisters, Mrs. Lois Salisbury of Eminence, Mo., Mrs. Carrie Hawn and Mrs. Lucy Burnett, both of Granite City; two brothers, Herbert Cline of Tamm, Ill., and Eurla Cline of Granite City; six grandchildren and two nieces. Burial was in Dongola (Ill.) Cemetery.

Channel 4 Newsroom, especially "cause they won't let me run down the corridors at the studio."

The vivacious and articulate newscaster seldom walks from point to point and, as her speech flow indicates, the fast-moving woman probably is headed up to her ultimate goal — anchorman on a network television news show.

Mrs. McDonald, a divorcee for the past six years and the mother of two children, a son, 7, and a daughter, 8 "going on 16," was the guest speaker at last night's Public Relations—Awards Night dinner sponsored by the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club.

HURT IN ACCIDENT

Brenda Galle, 22, of St. Louis, was treated in St. Elizabeth Hospital last week for injuries suffered as a passenger of an auto in an accident. She suffered bruises to the side of her head. She was released after treatment.

More than 100 members and guests heard the KMOX-TV newscaster, whose new assignment "on the street" with a live mini-camera crew is but one more new experience being added to many in the past six years in the broadcasting industry.

Mrs. Sylvia Wright, BPW president, welcomed the guests. Mrs. Betty Roberson, public relations chairman, was in charge of the awards ceremony and introduced the guest speaker.

Tribute was paid to the Granite City Press-Record with the presentation of an award to Paul Halbert, general manager, and Valerie Evenden of the news staff.

Bob Baker, station manager of WGNU Radio, and Shirley Adams of the station staff, likewise were honored with an award and gift. Miss Annellen Smith, a past club president and coordinator of the BPW's Individual Development Program, a personal development educational course for area clubs, was presented a "Leader-Ship" plaque.

DINNER GUESTS. Paul Halbert, general manager of the Granite City Press-Record, and Kathi McDonald of Channel 4 Newsroom (right) share some thoughts on mutual problems in the newspaper-television industry at the Business and Professional Women's Public Relations —

Awards Night dinner Wednesday. At left is Mrs. LaVelle Stephens, vice-president of the local BPW Club. Halbert accepted an award from the club for "outstanding cooperation and coverage" during the past year. A similar award was presented to Bob Baker, WGNU Radio station manager.

CAR HITS TREE TODAY

Edward H. Moad, 40, of 2752 Myrtle Ave., was injured when his auto skidded on wet pavement in the 1400 block of Madison Avenue at 2:10 a.m. today and struck a tree. Despite visible injuries, he declined to be taken to the hospital for treatment.

DAMAGE FOUR CARS

Rocks dented four cars in the used car lot of Maddox Motors, Inc., 4068 Nameoki Road, between 7 p.m. Monday and 9 a.m. Tuesday. The windshield of one car also was broken. Police believe youths threw the rocks from the vicinity of the nearby railroad tracks.

HOME BURGLARY

Rosetta Young, 175 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, reported that her home was burglarized between 11 p.m. Wednesday and 12:15 a.m. today. Taken were an eight-track tape recorder, an AM-FM speaker, a pocket size calculator and a modern phone.

County earmarks funds for sheriff's salaries

The Madison County Board yes yesterday approved earmarking $168,465 in grant funds from the Anti-Recession Fiscal Assistance Act to the Madison County Sheriff's Department for salaries.

The money could be used to hire additional deputies, but Sheriff John Maeras said this morning he has not yet been notified the money was available to his department and plans have not been made for how it will be spent.

The board reappointed Andy Bukovac and Edward Harvey as trustees of the Pontoon Beach Public Water District, and Robert Whitaker as a trustee of the Miracle Manor Street Light District.

The board also authorized a contract with William M. Mercer, Inc., to undertake a study and review of the county's insurance coverage and determine if other insurance can be obtained at a lower cost. The cost of the study is not to exceed $7,500.

Cash, coins taken

About $50 cash and two jars containing about $100 in coins were stolen during a burglary at the home of Joe Senter, 2624 Propes Ave., between 9 p.m. Monday and 2:40 a.m. Tuesday.

There were signs that unsuccessful attempts had been made to twist off both the front and rear door knobs with a tool. A pair of vice-grip pliers was found under the rear bedroom window which had been forced open to gain entry.

1971 AUTO IS STOLEN

A green 1971 Ford Pinto two-door auto was stolen from the driveway of Sharon Pierson, 2240 Lee Ave., during the night, the victim reported at 1:10 p.m. Wednesday.

NEWSCASTER Kathi McDonald of Channel 4 Newsroom relates her experiences as a sportscaster ("I'm too tall for some athletics and they don't like it") and her new assignment on the KMOX-TV live mini-camera news reporting staff ("Oh my goodness, look at that burning building falling down") for members of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club at last night's dinner.

DAR members hear means of tracing ancestors

The April meeting of the Drusilla Andrews Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held during the weekend at Charlie's Restaurant with 14 members attending.

Mrs. Eva Meier opened the meeting with a prayer, followed by the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Mrs. Janet Wilson, regent, presided, and asked Mrs. Ruth McCarty to read the president general's message.

Miss Ella Ray Smith presented several national defense topics. One topic commented on the methods being experimented with to change the weather patterns through the altering of the jet streams. Another dealt with comments made by a German official relating to World War II whereby he complimented the United States for its use of women in the labor force, a shortcoming of the Germans, he noted. Another topic related to the ease with which Americans can obtain a telephone, usually in about a week's time. In many countries it takes several years' waiting before one acquires a telephone. Another writer stated that thinkers can conquer the world. It was decided to send a donation to the Tamassee

School in North Carolina as a memorial to the late Mrs. Leona Tate. It was announced that April 29, at 11:30 a.m. is the national time for all school children to recite the pledge of allegiance around their schools' flags. Mrs. Emma Schoen, chapter registrar, presented a program on "Finding Additional Ancestors." She said that the most effective way is to "dig in" and that "it just takes lots of time." She stressed the utilization of cemeteries, books, county records, census records — many of which are available in the public library. Mrs. Schoen mentioned that anyone able to trace back about 12 generations, which would be to about 1864, would have over 5,000 ancestors. Next fall, according to Mrs. Schoen, local residents will have an opportunity to start tracking down some ancestors. A course in genealogy will be taught at Granite City South on Thursday nights, under the auspices of the Belleville Area College. She reminded members to watch for particulars about registration. Other members in attendance were Misses Mary Candler and Nette Hart and Mesdames Allie Patterson, Mamie Prohardt, D. Reva Turner, Ruth Mitchell, Barbara Williams, Margaret Bell and Jane Ann Vanealer.

CHRIS PHILLIP. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Phillip, 3301 Franklin Ave., she has become a member of the Gamma Delta literary society at Illinois College, Jacksonville. A 1974 graduate of Granite City High School South, she is a junior biology major. She is active on the volleyball squad and is currently the treasurer of her class. Illinois College is a private liberal arts school founded in 1829, the first college in the state to graduate a class.

Junior Bay View Club installs

The Junior Bay View Reading Club held its installation dinner last week at Charlie's Restaurant. The tables were decorated with centerpieces of candle and flower arrangements prepared by the program committee, Mrs. Marge O'Neill and Mrs. Marguerite Lexow, retiring secretary and treasurer. One centerpiece consisted of purple and white lilacs with red tulips and yellow jonquils. Each end of the table were crystal candle holders with green candles, and yellow tulips floating in clear glass globes. Favors were miniature cacti in various colored pots.

An engraved silver charm was presented to the retiring president, Mrs. Sharon Loftus by Mrs. O'Neill. Mrs. O'Neill conducted the installation of new officers: Mrs. Mildred Jungels, president; Mrs. Ann Little, vice-president and Mrs. Velma Neumann, secretary and treasurer.

After dinner the guests enjoyed games. Two vases of lunera were awarded as prizes to Mrs. Peggy Koerper and Mrs. O'Neill. Others present were Mrs. Clova Taylor and an associate member, Mrs. Jeanne Beatty. The May meeting will be held at the Plantation Dinner Theater on May 11 to see "You Know I Can't Hear You with the Water Running," starring Al Lewis.

More the Merrier fetes three members

Mrs. Juanita Crawley, Lester Thiel and Edna Wheat were awarded special honors in observance of their birthdays at the business meeting of the Merrier Senior Citizens, held last week. Vice-president Mrs. Emma Gobble led the group in reciting the Lord's Prayer and the President John Winklemier led the pledge of allegiance.

The president read a letter from the Crippled Children Society, who requested members secure sponsors and participate in the rock-a-thon. Prizes will be awarded to those who register the longest time in rocking chairs, he added.

Those who won prizes after the meeting were Edgar Paddock, Mae Findley, Mrs. Crawley, Lester and Helen Thiel, Marie Toth and Jessie Chase.

There were 30 members attending the session. Mr. Winklemier announced the next meeting will be a pot-luck dinner with the meat dish to be furnished by the club. Everyone is to provide their own dishes and silverware, he said.

STEPHEN MANCES NAMES DAUGHTER HARPER

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mance, 2616 Edison Ave., are announcing the birth of their second child, a girl, on April 2 at St. Mary's Health Center, Richmond Heights, Mo. The new arrival has been named Harper Hellmuth and she weighed nine pounds, three ounces. She has a two and one half year old sister, Morgan. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Mance of Granite City and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krusynski of Florissant, Mo.

Children's posture is 'body English'

By MARION WELLS

If your child's posture is out of line, it may be a tip-off that other health problems also need straightening out. Urging the youngster to straighten up may do little good until you find out what's pushing him out of shape. Poor posture can be revealing body language, according to medical experts. "For example," says Benjamin F. Miller, M.D., "a nearsighted or hard-of-hearing child is apt to thrust his head forward to see or hear better. As a result, his shoulders and back may be thrown out of line." A bodily slouch may signal improper diet or fatigue. Sometimes tall girls who feel self-conscious about their height may slump to make themselves less noticeable. Children's bodies may sag due to sagging spirits or self-esteem. "A shy, unhappy child who feels inferior may slump," Dr. Miller says. "Emotional problems, especially in adolescence, have contributed to many cases of curvature of the spine."

Among other causes of postural problems are foot trouble, clothing that's too heavy or too small, a chair or bed that gets a child out of position, and weakness, disease, or deformity involving muscles, bones or joints. Of course, posture varies somewhat with each person. Nor can a child be judged by adult standards. But if your youngster's posture is causing you concern, discuss it with the doctor now. Don't wait for your child's next checkup. If a physical or emotional problem is involved, early attention can avoid more serious difficulties later. Another benefit is the chance to correct or arrest postural deviations before they turn into more troublesome problems. When the child is held improperly over long periods of time, the muscles on one side become shortened, whereas those on the opposite side become lengthened, and the faulty position tends to become fixed.

Good body mechanics also gives a youngster's overall growth and development a healthy boost. It allows him to move more efficiently with less fatigue and strain. It helps facilitate good support and a full blood supply to the vital organs. This benefits breathing, digestion, elimination and metabolism.

Weiss and Sprick are promoted

Two appointments in the Commercial Department of National Steel Corporation have been announced, effective May 1.

John M. Weiss was named product manager-secretary sales at the Granite City Steel Division, succeeding George C. Key, who is retiring. Weiss has been assistant district sales manager of the St. Louis district sales office.

James E. Sprick, who is presently resident sales representative in Peoria, was promoted to assistant district sales manager at St. Louis, succeeding Weiss.

Weiss joined National Steel in 1950 in the sheet mill department of the Weirton Steel Division. He was transferred in 1954 to the St. Louis district sales office as an inside sales representative, and was promoted to outside sales representative in 1957.

He was named assistant district sales manager in 1974. Weiss will report to Harry Boff, general manager of products, Granite City Steel Division.

Sprick, a 1961 graduate of Washington University, St. Louis, joined Granite City Steel Company in 1954 as an expediter in the Order Entry Department. He became a sales trainee in 1962 and later that year was transferred to St. Louis as a sales representative. In 1973, he was promoted to resident sales representative, Peoria.

THEFT IS WITNESSED

A witness watched three men in an old light-green four-door Rambler auto stop in the alley behind the home of Virginia Pierce, 2600 E. 24th St., take the license plates off the car and then take Mrs. Pierce's $29 lawnmower from her garage and place it in the trunk of the car at 4 p.m. Tuesday. They left north on Henry Street with the trunk open, the witness said.

Energy reduction innovations ahead

By JAMES M. WOODARD

The increasing urgency for energy conservation in homes and buildings is generating some very creative innovations. New energy-saving techniques and materials are being introduced to the market.

For example, you may now forget to turn off the lights, TV set or typewriter when you leave a room. In your future home, these energy-consuming items may automatically turn off the moment you leave the room.

When you, or any person, reenters the room, the electricity is immediately and automatically reactivated, again serving the room's inhabitants with light, entertainment and other conveniences.

The idea is, of course, to limit the use of electrical power to times when people really need it — eliminating wasted expenditure of energy.

The system is based on a "monitored space" technique. When there is any disturbance to inaudible ultrasonic soundwaves within the monitored area, the affected electrical switching receives an automatic "go signals."

When the last persons leave the room and the system's sensors detect motion, the electricity goes off. Developers of the system estimate it will save enough energy to pay for itself in about one year.

Of course, there are still a few "bugs" that need to be worked out. When the family dog or cat, or even an incontinent mouse or moth, enters the quiet and darkened room, they may suddenly be greeted with bright lights and loud music. It could be quite a shock to small nervous systems.

Several new building materials are being researched and developed in the interests of better energy conservation. However, one of the most common materials, wood, is hard to beat when it comes to energy conserving qualities.

The composition of wood, with its millions of tiny cells or "air spaces," is one of the world's best insulators, this writer was told by an executive of Georgia-Pacific Corp.

In a recent study of identical wood-frame and solid masonry houses, calculations revealed that it cost $65 less annually to heat and cool an insulated all-wood home than an insulated masonry home.

Wood is also the favorite material for home remodelers. New wood siding, for example, not only conserves costly energy but adds an element of natural attractiveness to a home's exterior appearance and boosts property values.

One more point for our friend, wood: Unlike other materials, wood is a renewable resource. Lumber producers now make it a consistent practice to replant this valuable resource by replanting forests in areas where trees have been taken to serve the needs of man.

Q. Is it true that the two-bedroom home is now more popular with buyers than three-bedroom homes?

A. No. In fact, the single-family three-bedroom home has never been more popular than it is today.

The third annual National Consumer Survey on Housing determined a profile of today's most popular home. It's a single family, single level detached home with three bedrooms and two baths and includes special energy conserving features.

City replacing sanitary sewer at 17-foot depth

Excavating work to replace 140 feet of 15-inch sanitary sewer line along Pehling Road south of Bradley Avenue was initiated by the Granite City street department's sewer division on Monday, and ran into difficulties immediately.

Workers at first detoured southbound traffic at Bradley Avenue, but left the northbound lane open. They later reported it was impossible to move heavy excavation equipment with the road open and the roadway was closed off yesterday at both ends.

The second problem was a heavy rain Tuesday which hampered further excavations. For the time being and added more water to that already running underground at the excavation level.

As a result, Portell said, his department has revised the estimate for the time required to make the sewer replacement from one week to two weeks, assuming there are no heavy rains during that time.

Grade schools 'Gym-Jam' Saturday at Crossroads

The Granite City Elementary Schools Physical Education Department will present its annual "Gym-Jam" at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center, 3801 Nantux Road.

Mrs. Margaret Roberts, physical education instructor at Granite City Grade School and coordinator of the "Gym-Jam," said the event will be postponed until Saturday, April 30, in the event of rain.

The program will last about 60 minutes, Mrs. Roberts said. Spectators also may view the "Gym-Jam" on video tape, which will be taped and shown simultaneously with the actual performance, under the direction of Robert McBride, audio-visual teacher at Grigsby Junior High School.

Mrs. Brayfield dies at 73

Mrs. Pauline (Taylor) Brayfield, 73, of 2805 East 28th St., a 35-year Granite City resident, died at 9:42 p.m. Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

She had been ill for four years and a patient in the hospital four weeks.

Mrs. Brayfield was born in Pinckneyville, Ill. She retired in 1970 from Stix Baer and Fuller Store, St. Louis, where she had been employed as a saleslady 20 years.

A member of the Third Baptist Church, Mrs. Brayfield also was a Sunday school teacher at the church for 25 years. Mrs. Brayfield was a 50-year member of the Rebekah Lodge in Pinckneyville.

Survivors include her husband, Raymond Brayfield; two brothers, Hosea Taylor of Atlanta, Ga., and Carl Taylor of Edison, N.J.

$680 THEFT FROM HOME
A $650 color television set and a $39 wristwatch were stolen from the apartment of Thomas Brown, 1625A Delmar Ave., between 9 p.m. Tuesday and 12:10 a.m. Wednesday. There were no signs of forced entry.

Man charged after accident

Robert Dagon Jr., 33, of 2127 Edison Ave., was charged Tuesday night with leaving the scene of an injury accident, reckless driving and driving while his driver's license was revoked after his station wagon allegedly was involved in an accident on Edwardsville Road near 20th Street at 10:55 p.m. Tuesday.

It is alleged his station wagon struck the rear of the car of Miss Donice Abernathy, 22, East St. Louis, stopped for traffic at a stop light. The station wagon allegedly then drove from the scene.

A witness gave police a license number and description of the station wagon. Officers ran a check on the license number and said that number was issued to Dagon.

They went to Dagon's home where they found a station wagon matching the description and license number. Dagon later was seen walking near his home and was arrested.

Miss Abernathy was released from St. Elizabeth Hospital after receiving x-rays for lower back pain.

Course for parents and instructors

Registration is now open for a summer residential course for teachers, parents, school board members and teachers of teachers, according to Prof. Thomas C. O'Brien, director of the Teachers' Center Project at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The course will take place on the campus of Maryville College Aug. 14-20. Topic is "Mathematics, Environment and Intellectual Growth."

Faculty for the course will consist of: David S. Flecker, director of London's Abbey Wood Maths Centre and editor of the British journal Mathematics Teaching; James R. MacLean, curriculum director for the Province of Ontario and co-author with Edith E. Biggs of Freedom to Learn; and O'Brien, a North Atlantic Treaty Organization senior research fellow in science and professor in the SIUE School of Education.

Mrs. Barrich dies at 88

Mrs. Eunice Lillian Barrich, 88, of 915 Second St., Venice, died at 7:20 a.m. Wednesday at the Centreville Township Hospital.

She had been in ill health three months and was hospitalized two days. Mrs. Barrich died on her 88th birthday.

Born in Richlieu, Ky., she had been a resident of Venice for 47 years. She was a member of the Southern Baptist Church.

Her husband, Joseph Barrich, died in '58.

Survivors include two sons, Henry Harry of Franklin, Ky., and Jim Harry of Portland, Tenn.; two daughters, Mrs. Joseph (Lillian) Bag of Venice and Mrs. Edgar (Della) Onkle of St. Louis; 11 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Funeral services for Elzie Whitwell

Funeral services were held April 14 in Doniphan, Mo., for Elzie Whitwell, 81, the father of Mrs. Loretta Hill of Granite City.

Mr. Whitwell died April 12 at Ripley County Memorial Hospital in Doniphan, where he was admitted Easter Sunday.

Beside his daughter here, Mr. Whitwell is survived by two grandsons, Daniel Hill of Granite City and Bill Brooks of Wisconsin; and one great-grandchild.

Burial was at Bennett Cemetery in Doniphan.

$1,310 BURGLARY

Hand tools and power tools with a total value of about $1,310 were stolen from a shed at the home of Paul Batson, 2819 Roosevelt Ave., between 10 p.m. Monday and 9 a.m. Tuesday. A latch was pried from the shed door to gain entry. Power tools included a drill and two chainsaws.

Symphonic concert

The Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble at SIUE will hold a concert Sunday at 3:30 p.m. in the Communications Building theater. Carl St. Clair, director of bands at the university, will conduct the concert.

The program will open with Aaron Copland's "An Outdoor Overture," and continue with Chance's "Elegy." The group then will perform Barber's "Commando March" and Sullivan's "Pineapple Poll."

Also on the program will be

Scott Joplin's "The Easy Winners" and "Maple Leaf Rag." The concert will close with Kurt Weill's "Little Threepenny Music" from the Threepenny Opera.

St. Clair, a native Texan, came to SIUE from the University of Texas-Austin, where he was associate conductor of the wind ensemble and assistant to the conductor of the symphony orchestra and operatetheater.

While at Texas, in addition to his work with the band and wind ensemble, St. Clair conducted both symphony orchestra and opera, including the western premiere of Prokofiev's last opera, "The Story of A Real Man."

Since coming to SIUE, he has served as guest conductor and clinician in many schools in Illinois and St. Louis. In November, he will be the guest conductor of the 1977 District VI Band Festival.

Students featured in the concert will include Victor A. Barnhart and Deborah Barham, both of Madison, and, from Granite City, Tom Bull, Carol Lynne Douglas, Stephen Hall, Cindy Johnson and Jeri Johnson.

WESTBOUND WEIGH-IN station along Interstate 70 near here is a busy area for trucks — and state police

Trooper is foe of overweight trucks

By JEFF NELSON
COLLINSVILLE — "Let's go out and see if we can find something," Trooper Ed Allen said, grinning impishly around the apple-bowled pipe in the corner of his mouth. Allen is the "overweight" specialist, having accounted for 22 per cent of the overweight vehicle arrests in the Illinois State Police's Collinsville District last year.

"It shouldn't take more than a half hour," Ed was right. Within a half hour he had corralled a dump truck, 3,920 pounds overweight with a load of rock salt and resulting in a $200 fine for the truck's owner and driver.

Ed looks at every truck within his line of vision, from the small dump truck to the large tanker. Anything with more than four wheels is a candidate for his experienced eye.

"I check the bulge in the tires," he said, pulling within a car-length of a semi-trailer in front of us. A saltwater spray, melting snow kicked up by the truck's tires, instantly smeared the windshield of the patrol car. "See, truck tires shouldn't have a bulge. If they do, something's wrong."

He cornered into the passing lane, creeping past the trailer's dual axles and then past the dual axles of the tractor.

"Then I check to see how much rubber he's got on the road. See, these are still round. He's empty. If he had a load those tires would begin to flatten out and if he were overweight he could have a load of rubber on the pavement under each tire."

We were heading toward St. Louis from the westbound Collinsville truck-weighing scales.

Ed shook his head toward the ramps. "That's the hardest place in the world to catch someone. Once they get started up those ramps, even an overweight truck... why, by the time I turn around, they're gone." His eyes danced with the thought of the hunt.

As he finished, he spotted a tank truck lurching up the slight grade, going in the opposite direction. The tires ballooned as the truck rolled over pavement cracks.

"The best evidence in the world," he said, "that these things wreck the road, is to get out there sometime and direct traffic. One of those things goes by, you can feel the pavement give under your feet."

Ed crossed the median and pulled in behind the truck, then alongside "to see how much rubber he's laying down." "Inedible fat" read a grease covered sign on the back of the trailer. A turn signal flashed, indicating the truck intended to take an entrance ramp to the bridge.

Ed passed him, entering the ramp first. He stopped, turned on his red light, got out and motioned the truck in behind the patrol car. After checking the bill of lading and asking the driver whether the trailer had one tank or multiple tanks (to minimize sloshing) in it, Ed gave the driver an "Okay. Sorry to bother you," and headed back to the patrol car.

Once in the car and headed back toward Granite City, Ed said he felt the truck was overweight but not enough to bother with. As he drove, he continually checked his rear view mirror (for trucks) and drove in the left lane. As trucks approached from the opposite direction, Ed slowed, pulled onto the shoulder and cranked down his window for a good look at the passing vehicle. When trucks entered the highway from side roads, Ed watched carefully. "When you see them lurk... their front end bobbing up and down — you know they're pulling some weight. I want to get a good look at those guys." If they turned to the same direction he was driving, Ed would switch to the right lane, pull over and stop so he could get a good look when the truck rolled by.

A birth certificate should be presented at the time of registration, and must be presented before actual attendance can begin in the fall. Illinois law states that no child may enter school for the first time without immunizations for whooping cough, diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, rubella (measles) and rubella (three-day measles).

Exceptions are made only for certain religious or medical reasons.

Physical and dental examinations also are required before kindergarten attendance may begin. These forms are distributed to parents at the time of registration so that appointments for exams can be arranged during the summer.

School nurses will be available to explain health regulations to parents.

The child being registered should accompany the parent next week, Sept. Davis said.

Any questions concerning registration can be answered by the principal of the neighborhood elementary school or by Vasil Efthymiou, director of pupil personnel services, at the Board of Education office, 876-6600.

Pre-school centers — Emerson, Logan, McKinley, Marshall, Washington and Webster — will conduct registration at the same time as the kindergarten enrollment.

The only difference in requirements is that the child must be four years old on or before Dec. 31, 1977, for pre-school.

Students currently enrolled in pre-school aren't required to register for kindergarten. They will be tested at their regular schools.

Pre-school pupils who are absent on the day testing is held at their school will be tested at their center on April 29.

Last year, school board members started a practice of being available for a portion of the kindergarten and pre-school registration.

Each year, four schools are chosen and eventually all will have been visited. This year, Niederhagen, Johnson, Mitchell and Stallings will host registration tests. Board members will be present to discuss with parents mutual concerns of the school district.

Willis Grigsby, 57, dies

Willis H. Grigsby, 57, of 3819 John Glenn Drive, former owner and manager of the Grigsby Bi-Rite Grocery in Pontoon Beach, was pronounced dead at home at 3 a.m. Wednesday by Edward Werner, Madison County deputy coroner.

Mr. Grigsby had been ill 13 years and under the care of a doctor.

A native of Sikeston, Mo., he resided in this area 36 years. Mr. Grigsby was a member of the Cedarview Baptist Church. He also belonged to Masonic Lodge 877, Ainal Temple, Scottish Rite Bodies, Low Twelve Club and Amvet Post 51.

Mr. Grigsby also owned and operated another grocery store in East Alton area while managing the local establishment from 1951 until he retired in 1969.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Chalice Grigsby; two daughters, Mrs. Melvin (Shurmette) Maier of Granite City and Mrs. Richard (Judy) Graville, Red Valley, Calif.; a brother, Ervin G. Grigsby of Hartford; three sisters, Mrs. John (Eva) Martin of Beahlo, Mrs. Taylor (Stella) Laird, Hartford, and Mrs. Fern Corey of Mitchell; and four grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Physical and dental examinations also are required before kindergarten attendance may begin. These forms are distributed to parents at the time of registration so that appointments for exams can be arranged during the summer.

Country star Dolly now dabbling in rock

By ROBIN WELLES

HOLLYWOOD — Country queen Dolly Parton is sliding into a new image that could turn her into a pop superstar. The "new" Parton is less Smoky Mountains and more big city rock — a tendency that is strikingly evident in her new RCA album entitled appropriately: "New Harvest... First Gathering."

A songwriter of the first rank as well as singer, Parton wrote much of her new album and, while the songs retain the country mood of her Tennessee background, there is a definite move toward "progressive" rock. Left behind by the new Parton express is Porter Wagoner, with whom she did those great country duets for many years (she has been named best female singer for the last two years by the Country Music Association).

Wagoner just wouldn't blend with a song like "Light of a Clear Blue Morning" on the new album. It's a Parton piece with a country flavor, but also containing rock 'n' roll flourishes.

An upbeat, happy gal, Dolly is determined to go her own way.

I'm writing more and better than ever," she says. "It's still the same Dolly Parton, but I feel I'm ready to fly. The joy of living is just doing what you really want to do."

So, just at a time when country music is elbowing rock out of the way for a bigger slice of the entertainment dollar, Dolly Parton is going the other way, toward what she calls "new directions." It's like Elton John picking up a guitar and a Nashville songbook.

And the beat goes on: MOTOWN — Preferred

Stock (Motown) — Seems like there is an insatiable market out there for collections of "hits." The latest Motown spectacular bidding for this market is a series of three "preferred stock" LPs — with 20 hits by the original artists on each album. All the Motown stars are there: Gladys Knight & The Pips, The Spinners, Marvin Gaye, Michael Jackson, Four Tops, The Temptations, Smokey Robinson, The Vandellas. A fine roundup of some outstanding performances.

WOODY GUTHRIE — Original Recordings (Warner

Bros.) — There are some singers that develop into legends like Hank Williams, Woody Guthrie and others. Guthrie emerged from the Dust Bowl back in the 1930s, and his songs were raw and full of suffering, and some became classics like "So Long (It's Been Good to Know You)" and "This Land is Your Land." They're here on this LP, a bit scratchy because they were recorded 30 some years ago but touched with genius.

THE MARSHALL TUCKER BAND — Carolina Dreams (Capricorn) — The

Southern rock band, born just four years ago, is riding the crest of four gold records, and "Carolina Dreams" probably will be the fifth. Tucker merges a lot of influences into a blend of rock, country, jazz and rhythm and blues. The group holds down the throttle hard on some things, but Doug Gray also has a way with a pop vocal.

THE BEST OF MICHEL LEGRAND (Kory) — One for the champagne crowd that has some of those dreamy compositions penned by Mr. Smooth. Like "Summer of '42" and "Brian's Song."

There also are Legrand treatments of "Over the Rainbow," "Laura," "Autumn Leaves," "Moon River." Which gives you the idea. ANGEL — On Earth As It Is in Heaven (Casablanca) — The quintet is rock music's contribution to the earthquake threat. Formed just a couple of years ago, the group has blasted its way to recognition in the wake of Kiss. Performances are polished and glittering with colored lights. With a combination of first class promotion and undeniable talent, Angel should make it.

ARIES: (March 21 to April 19) — Also Aries Ascendant — Take care of domestic tasks you have let slide — clean out, discard, organize. Many paths are open to you now. Don't scatter your energies. Work on one thing at a time. Build a reliable image regarding finance.

TAURUS: (April 20 to May 20) — Also Taurus Ascendant — Take care of property interests. Redecorate and repair with the help of family members. Extend yourself to outside social life, too. Weigh remarks carefully — be discreet and guard your reputation. Be open and honest.

GEMINI: (May 21 to June 21) — Also Gemini Ascendant — Conflicting views can be reconciled now. Be alert for opportunities in your work and financial arenas. Popularity is high. Engage in group social activities. Join new organizations and expand social interests.

CANCER: (June 22 to July 21) — Also Cancer Ascendant — Be active socially and take the limelight position. Many could find a new "cause" to attach to. A troublesome matter from the past comes more into focus and you can recognize its relative unimportance.

LEO: (July 22 to Aug. 21) — Also Leo Ascendant — Focus your energies on a project or interest that is very meaningful to you. Success and recognition could crown your efforts. Reaffirm contacts with important people and meet new ones. Don't let success go to your head!

VIRGO: (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) — Also Virgo Ascendant — Get together with friends for a social bash. Be optimistic and enthusiastic and success is your reward. Use your versatility and adaptability and problems are solved. Finish up an old project — revise budget.

LIBRA: (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) — Also Libra Ascendant — Devote yourself to work — even giving up your day off. Ideas flow easily and your creativity is at a peak. Curb all impulse toward extravagance. Now is the time for thrift. Show affection to your life-mate.

SCORPIO: (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — Also Scorpio Ascendant — Be outgoing and take an interest in artistic people and things. Good time to entertain — gathering friends around you in your home. A letter or communication may spur you to answer in direct and honest language.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — Also Sagittarius Ascendant — You are on the social bandwagon this week. Don't neglect your work, however, or you could regret it. Some Sagittarians make the decision now to leave their present job with feelings of relief.

CAPRICORN: (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19) — Also Capricorn Ascendant — You may feel confusion and despair regarding your desires and goals. Troubles come from minor matters which you can solve with the help of others. Resist temptation to brood in isolation. Communicate with others.

AQUARIUS: (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18) — Also Aquarius Ascendant — A romantic attraction should be pursued with caution and for the right reasons. Other single Aquarians may be considering marriage. Look your best and recognize that you are greatly admired.

PISCES: (Feb. 19 to March 20) — Also Pisces Ascendant — Social life is fulfilling for you now and you're witty and high-spirited. Resist temptations to pry into other's affairs or to gossip about what you do know. Be loyal to friends and relatives. Be realistic about your desires for change.

Mrs. Schillinger is club hostess

The April meeting of Thongate Garden Club was held last week in the home of Mrs. Clara Schillinger.

The ladies were appointed with bouquets of lilacs and the favors were tiny Easter baskets, used in flower arrangements.

Mrs. Helen Polley, president, was in charge of the business session. Roll Call was answered by telling what happened on April Fool's Day.

Special readings were presented by Mrs. Schillinger, who read "A Friend," "The Dogwood Tree," read by Lillian Delphs, and "After the Winter," given by Wanda Kincaid. Members learned the planting of a tree and tulips at the Colonial Haven Nursing Home has proven successful. The Madison County Nature and Bicycle Trail project also was discussed.

Plans were made to visit the Madison County Nursing Home in Edwardsville this week. A silent auction was held and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Among those present were Wanda Herman, Betty King, June King, June Lux, June Markham, Beulah Miller, Jean Bethel and a guest, Pearl Young.

Mrs. Patricia Polley will entertain the club at its next meeting.

Women's Club aids projects

The Nameoki Women's Club agreed to send a donation to the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce to be used toward the completion of the downtown mini-park, located at Niedringhaus Avenue and Cleveland Boulevard, at the April session.

Miss Lucinda Huck, president, presided at the luncheon meeting held at the Nameoki Recreation Center, Wednesday.

Also approved by the membership was a donation for the special olympic games for handicapped children and funds for the Chamber of Commerce to be selected at a later meeting. Miss Huck announced.

The president reported the club received two awards from District 22 for philanthropic programs and an art award. Guest speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. Eva Dressel of Augusta, Mo., state EHA coordinator for the Woman League of Voters for Missouri.

Those present included Mesdames E. M. Arnovitz, Emmett Beeler, Elmer Branding, J. C. Byers, Harold Caldwell, John Harsh, Ray Horn, W. C. Irvin, Harold Jansen, Russell Johnson, Hugh Kraus, John Lentz, Lawrence McCauley, Emil Mueller, James Parley, Ted Schaefer, Otto Shelton, Irma Taylor, Irby Todd, Fred Werner, Dawson Wade, and Misses Lily Dod and Hazel Towery.

Food additives—a 2-edged sword

By BARB MAYER

When it comes to consuming food additives, you're damned if you do and damned if you don't.

"I'm still eating because I don't like the alternatives," was the way Robert Reber put it. A University of Illinois nutrition specialist, he said: "There's a lot of concern about the safety of our food. But additives are a two-edged sword. Without them we'd have a rough time feeding the nation. Convenience foods would go."

Reber said additives can be intentional or unintentional. Among unintentional additives or food "hitchhikers" are contaminants like bacteria, rodent and insect parts, residue from pesticides and herbicides, additives in livestock feed and industrial pollutants.

"Bacteria is the biggest threat to our food safety," said Reber. "There are millions of cases of food poisoning each year."

Staphylococcus bacteria produce the poisonous toxins that cause staph infections, often mistaken for 24-hour flu.

"It happens when the turkey is left out too long," Reber said. "Staph bacteria are present on everyone's hands—they're transferred to the cooked meat and they grow at room temperature."

Botulism, a rare but fatal form of food poisoning, is largely a problem with home-canned products. Salmonella bacteria spread when people handle raw meats and poultry without washing their hands.

Intentional additives include preservatives that may actually keep toxic substances from building up in foods, Reber said.

The molds that grow on breads and other cereal products produce a substance called aflatoxin, which causes cancer of the liver. Additives like sodium or calcium propionate inhibit the growth of these molds.

"Some foods naturally contain toxic substances," said Reber. "The little green spots on potatoes contain a mild poison, solanine. The average person consumes 10 grams of solanine a year. If you gave this to a horse in one dose, it would kill him."

Similarly, almonds contain cyanide and rhubarb and spinach contain oxalic acid.

"With most food additives, the benefit far outweighs the harm," Reber said.

He noted the Delaney Clause, part of the Food Additive Amendment of 1958, forbids manufacturers from adding any substance to food that causes or induces cancer in humans or animals in any amount.

"But sometimes we use additives when we don't really need them," Reber said. "I question the use of additives for strictly cosmetic effects. Do we need oranges colored yellow on the outside? Do we need red potatoes?"

New books—portraits, gardens, road atlases

NADAR: by Nigel Gosling. Knopf; 288 pages; $25. A young political radical and adventurer during the great age of French romanticism in the early 19th Century, Felix Nadar turned to the camera in the 1850s and quickly became one of the masters of that new art. His portraits are among the best in existence, for any age. Gosling has gathered them together in this oversized book that is of historic as well as artistic importance. Here are portraits of celebrated 19th Century figures like a youngish-looking Richard Wagner, composer Rossini, Alexandre Dumas, Eugene Delacroix, Hector Berlioz, George Sand, Edouard Manet, Sarah Bernhardt (as a young woman), composer Verdi and sculptor Rodin.

There are many more, as well as a deathbed photo of Victor Hugo. A remarkable collection. (C) represents the best advice of McGraw-Hill's experts on how to best arrange your finances for maximum profitability. There are long-range forecasts of the economy and how it might affect the stock market. Should you get into real estate now? McGraw-Hill says yes, and cites some kinds of real estate investment that could pay hand-some dividends, such as renovating old buildings in areas that are undergoing urban redevelopment. But it's pointed out that your house probably is your best real estate investment. If your personal finances are in chaos, this book could get you straightened out. (C)

RAND McNALLY ROAD ATLASES: two sizes, $2.95 and $1.95. Rand McNally is issuing new editions of its U.S.-Canada road atlases. This time there are two, convenient 8.5 x 11, and the larger 11 x 15. Both will appeal to vacation planners and the smaller one is just right for ready use in the car while traveling. The larger one, of course, has more entries and shows national forests, parks, even notes where industrial tours are available. Rand McNally says 20,000 revisions were made to bring these two editions up to the minute for 1977 tourists. (JP)

Senior Citizens meet at Tri-Mor

Fifty members of the Tri-Mor Senior Citizens Club met Tuesday at the 300 Room of the bowling establishment for a potluck luncheon and meeting.

Mrs. Ann Giese gave the opening prayer and Mrs. Kathryn Smithson, president conducted the meeting.

Green place mats and pink napkins provided the decorating motif used with an arrangement of pink and white poppies, created by Mrs. Pauline Canham. Willis Flowers donated a floral arrangement for the main table, which was later awarded to Lena Hamenson.

Those seated at the main table were Mrs. Smithson, Mrs. Ella Wade, vice-president, Charles Adams and Dawson Wade.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in playing cards.

ALL ABOUT GARDENS:

Ortho books; $1.95 each. It's the time of year for Ortho to issue some more of its celebrated books on gardening. This year's books tell you all about tomatoes, fruits and berries, roses, wood projects for the garden, and add some advice about Oriental cooking. Even if you're a tomato hater, you may break down after you see the succulent Ortho shots of ripe red tomatoes. Photography does as much as written instruction to advance the gardening cause in these oversized paperback books; color photos are used expertly. (DC)

Nurses Alumni Tea set May 10

The reunion tea of the St Elizabeth Hospital Nurses Alumni planned for May 10 was the topic of discussion at a meeting of the group held Tuesday at the hospital.

Sister Pauline, president announced the tea will honor the class of 1952 and nurses will be presented to girls as cumulating 30-years of service.

Mrs. Georgia Harlow gave the treasurer's report and Josephine Czervinski reviewed activities of the cheer committee and gave a report on the benevolent fund.

Hostesses for the evening were Clara Krause and Bernice Gushoff. They presented prizes to Martha Bischoff, Helen Gages, Helen Buenger and Maxine Carson and served refreshments.

Others present were Mary Saukils, Dorothy Bruce, Edna Wallace, Roberta Gerke, Caro Buenger, Lois E. Bowers, Alberta Ronney, Danelde Blackmore and a guest Sister JoAnn Pisel.

CAR BURGLARY
An auto belonging to John Motes, 2421 Washington Ave. was entered while the car was parked in the 1900 block of Stat Street. It was reported at 5 p.m. Friday. Taken were an FM eight track tape player and a 23 channel citizen band radio.

TRAFFIC DETOUR at Fehling Road and Bradley Avenue results from excavations in the 3200 block of Fehling made by street workers in replacement of a 15-inch sewer line. Southbound traffic on Fehling, shown in foreground, is routed over Bradley, at right. Fehling Road also is closed at State Street where motorists must determine their own route to reach their destination. Lionel Portell, street superintendent, said Fehling probably will be closed for two weeks to complete the sewer line project.

TORN LAWNS, DAMAGED ROADWAY are visible in this view of excavations in the 3200 block of Fehling Road as Street Department workers undertake replacement of 140 feet of sanitary sewer line which has been broken for the past year. The 15-inch concrete line being replaced was installed eight years ago in a city sewer repair program. The old sewer is 17 feet deep, one foot below the underground water table which adds to the woes of workers digging up the old line. Fehling Road has been closed to traffic, and is expected to remain so for about two weeks that the work is expected to take.

Lichtenberger, Venice Mayor William Ebersoldt (background), Chairman Carl Mathias, Ed Edwards (background), Dale Arnette, Ralph Morris, Edwin G. Schmitt, and Edward F. Reiske (background). Other current projects include efforts to establish an industrial park.

Elect three in Pontoon Beach

Three unopposed incumbents in Pontoon Beach were easily re-elected to the Village Board during balloting in the village Tuesday. At the lone polling place, the Long Lake Firemen's Hall, 268 voters cast ballots, primarily for the incumbents.

Paul L. Bennett totaled 251 votes, Donald C. Rea 237 and Raymond L. Gaudette Jr. 219. There were 13 spoiled ballots. In write-in votes, Joyce Hastings led with nine votes and Louis Whitsell received two. Several others had one write-in vote each.

Student orientation

Students accepted for enrollment at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and parents from five area counties will be guests at an orientation coffee at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Meridian Ballroom of the University Center. The counties are Bond, Jersey, Macoupin, Madison and Montgomery.

The get-acquainted meeting will include a brief presentation concerning registration, student job opportunities, financial assistance, housing and campus activities.

Warren Stoekey, executive director of the SUE Alumni Association, sponsor of the meeting, said faculty and staff members will be available to answer specific questions. Others from the five-county area interested in enrollment at the local campus are welcome, Stoekey said.

Filing opens for county fair queen candidates

Prospective contestants for the second annual Miss Madison County Fair Pageant have been urged to file their candidacies with pageant officials early this year, a pageant official said. Resumes detailing educational, background, hobbies, activities, address and telephone number, accompanied by a recent photograph, are to be mailed to: Madison County Fair Pageant, P.O. Box 41, Granite City, Ill. 62040. Entries are being accepted from young women, 16 to 21 years of age, who are not married and are not professional models. Candidates must meet all requirements of the pageant, including not having reached the age of 22 years before Jan. 1, 1978. A total of 20 candidates will be selected from those applying at a special dinner meeting of officials in June, the officials said. A panel of five judges will select the Madison County Fair queen during stage competition on July 15, prior to the start of the 1977 county fair at Highland which starts July 24.

Grace infant succumbs

Jamie Rachelle Grace, 4-day-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael (Cheryl) Grace, Rural Route One, Edwardsville, formerly of Granite City, died at 10:11 p.m. Tuesday at Cardinal Glennon Hospital, St. Louis. The infant was born in Alton, Ill., and was a patient for three days at the St. Louis hospital. Other survivors include grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Grace and Mr. and Mrs. Hurlis Terrell, all of Granite City; Great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Hale, Granite City, Mrs. Esther Laird, St. Louis, and Mrs. Daisy Wells, Evansville, Ind. Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

AUTO BURGLARY
Dennis Brown, 2423 Bryan Ave., reported at 1:32 a.m. today that while his auto was parked at 1532 Madison Ave., Madison, the right door of his auto was forced and his citizen band radio valued at $250 was taken.

Tentative plans for the National Beauty Salon Week show set for October at the Moose Lodge was the topic of discussion of the Elite Hairdressers Affiliate meeting conducted Monday evening at the Granite City School of Beauty Culture, 1815 Edison Ave.

Julies Ahring as board member and Miss Peggy Eubanks as secretary for the remainder of the year.

During the evening Michael Hopke, guest artist, demonstrated quick service techniques with two models, Martha Bezan and Elaine Wilkinson.

Others attending were Sheila Morgan, Willene Gregory, Marcella Tucker, Peggy Eubanks, Naomi Gray, Joyce Kotoff, Julie Ahring and Betty Smith.

The Ladies Auxiliary to Private Henry Ostendorf of the VFW Post 1300, met at the post for its April meeting and elected Mary Lee Carroll to serve as president for the ensuing year.

Others elected include Verne Dowdy, senior vice-president; Ollie Conway, junior vice-president; Peggy Jones, Chaplain; Alice Bauza, guard; Frances Aldridge, counductress; Jennie Barney, treasurer and Margaret Champion, a three-year trustee. Mrs. Champion, the retiring president, presided over the lengthy discussion on plans for the post and auxiliary 45th anniversary set for April 30. During the affair 25, 35, 40 and 45-year members will be accorded special honors with all past presidents and past commanders.

Members will provide covered dishes for the dinner, it was noted.

New members introduced were Margaret Schnefke, Debbie Schnefke, Margaret Dawdy, Lola Hanks, Patricia Hardesty and Angie Zimmerman.

Members agreed to send donations to the Crippled Childrens Society and to the 12th District to be used towards paying for state winners of the Voice of Democracy trip to Washington, D. C.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. John DeHart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Youngs, Mrs. Maxine Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClimont, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lewis, Mrs. Karynn Edmonds, Mrs. Bess Henley, David John, Earl French, Mrs. Florence Spohr, Mrs. Evelyn Naney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meador, James F. Clark and Mrs. Harold William, Mrs. Hazel Wood and Mrs. Nannie Meadows.

Mrs. Ebrecht announced Mrs. John will host the May 2 meeting and the June gathering will be a noon-day luncheon in the home of Mrs. Leuchter, Creve Coeur. Mo.

PINOCHLE CLUB MEETS AT BUSCH RESIDENCE
The A to Z Pinochle Club met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Sue Busch, 4600 D'Lynn Drive, for a social meeting.

Those excelling in the card games were Ruth Kinder, Helen Krakowiecki, Helen Love and Evelyn Ferro.

A dessert luncheon was served by the hostess to those named and to Clara Winter, Lucille Broyles, Ilsa Bauer and Mary Mang. The May meeting will be hosted by Mrs. Emily Melaski.

Sr. Citizens plan election

The YMCA Senior Citizen Club finalized plans for an election of officers at the Friday, April 22, meeting of the organization during a session held last week at the YMCA. Sixty members met for a pot-luck dinner at 11:30 a.m. followed by the business meeting. They recited the Lord's Prayer and pledge to the flag and Mrs. Lucille Pierce, president, presided. She read a letter from the Crippled Children Society in relation to members taking part in the annual rock-a-thon event. Mrs. Augusta Lampe gave a short talk on legislation and urged all members to write to senators and congressmen stating the senior citizens do not want to be put on welfare but wish to stay on social security medicare programs. Games were played during the social hour.

Nurses to attend state convention

Mrs. Dona Boyer, vice-president of the Licensed Practical Nurse Association of Illinois, and Mrs. Charlene Spurrier of Alton, president of District 14 of the LPNA, will be among delegates attending the association's annual state convention in Springfield April 24 through 28. Six other delegates of District 14 which includes Madison, Greene, Jersey, Macoupin and Calhoun Counties, also will attend. Gov. James Thompson has proclaimed the week of April 24-30 as Licensed Practical Nurse of Illinois Week. Theme of the convention will be "Practical Nursing Today and Tomorrow" with emphasis on continued education for the nurses.

STATE GYMNASTIC TITLIST. Pam Rowden, a seventh grader at Grigsby Junior High School and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Rowden, competed along with 300 other statewide girls and placed first in optional tumbling competition, second in balance beam, third in floor exercises and sixth overall during the weekend. Her accomplishments, signified by the display of awards in front of her, helped pace the Edwardsville YMCA team to the state "Y" title at SIU at Carbondale. (Press-Record Photo)

New format for state soccer

Major changes in the selection of teams eligible to qualify for the state final tournament and the manner in which competition will be conducted prior to the single-elimination state final may make the 1977 Illinois High School Association (IHSA) boys' state soccer series next fall the most unique in the nation, the IHSA said today. Granite City South is the reigning 1976 state soccer champion.

Adopting the application of regular season results, as in the IHSA football playoff series, is planned to determine 24 teams to participate in six sectional tournaments for schools classified as suburban area schools.

There will be a three-match round-robin playing format to determine a winner at those six sectionals.

The new format for determining the eight state finalists will be:

— The Chicago Public League will conduct its own qualifying tournament in a format of its choosing to send one representative to the state final tournament.

— All soccer playing schools located geographically north of Peoria (suburban area schools) will be eligible to be selected to play in one of the six northern sectionals based on the results of the school's final 12 regular season matches against Illinois schools. Those six sectional champions will advance to the state final.

— All schools located at or below Peoria geographically (non-suburban area schools) will participate in a single-elimination series leading to determination of one sectional champion to advance to the state final.

— All IHSA member schools which will play boys' soccer next fall have been mailed a soccer data card, detailing pertinent information about the school, the school's official contact person who will report results of the school's games to the IHSA office on a regular basis, and the school's 1977 (next school year) schedule. This data card must be completed and returned to the IHSA office no later than May 13. Information obtained on the soccer card will be used to develop a soccer master schedule and for the IHSA office to do record-keeping during the 1977 season.

The soccer master schedule will be mailed to soccer-playing member schools and news media in August.

It is imperative that which field a varsity boys soccer team in the fall of 1977 properly complete the school soccer data card and return it on or before the deadline of May 13 so that work on the schedule can be completed before the end of the summer, the IHSA said.

For non-suburban area schools, sub-sectional competition will be held from Oct. 24 to Oct. 28 of 79.

Four teams will advance to the sectional, which will be conducted Nov. 1-2 and Nov. 4 or 5 (title match) at a site selected by the IHSA.

County track meet here next Tuesday

The annual Madison County track meet, sponsored by Harold E. Briggs, regional superintendent of schools, and hosted by Granite City High School, 3100 Madison Ave., will be held on Tuesday, April 26.

Roger Smith is the meet manager. Trials will start at 4 p.m., with finals immediately after the preliminaries.

The following schools of Madison County will participate:

Roxana, Triad, Highland, Edwardsville, Bethalto, Granite City North and South, Collinsville, Alton, Madison, East Alton-Wood River and St. Paul of Highland.

The track meet is divided into two divisions, the Red Division for schools with large enrollments and the Green Division for smaller enrollments.

Admission is $1 for students and $2 for adults.

One-hit pitching beats two-hitter

Coach William "Bill" Campbell's Madison High School nine suffered a rainout Tuesday afternoon in a scheduled home game with Triad (St. Jacob-Troy-Marine), and the team's final day of play to the Eagles at Livingston. Yesterday's game developed into a duel on the mound betwen Eagle Todd Brooke and Trojan Tim Jones. Brooke hurled a one-hitter and Jones yielded two hits. Prince Fields singled in the sixth frame for Madison's lone hit. Livingston capitalized on a triple, two errors and two walks to score two runs in the fourth. The team also scored in the fifth and sixth.

MHS fifth of 11

Madison High School placed fifth Wednesday in an 11-school track and field relay meet at Wood River, earning 46 points. O'Fallon had 99, followed by Mascoutah 98, Bethalto 74, Carlinville 55, MHS, Wood River 43, Lebanon and Jerseyville 26 each, Hillsboro 20, Trenton Wesleyan 10 and Roxana, none.

Coach Charles Steptoe noted that Marcus White competed, though he has still not fully recovered from an illness. But two consistent Trojan pointmakers — Ron Morris and Duane Bochantin — were ill and did not compete. Trojan pointmakers included: 440 (Frosh, soph) relay — James Heard, Sylvester Collins, White, Earnest Davenport 1st (46.5 seconds); 440 (Varsity) relay — Carl Hicks, Daryl Hampton, Heard, White 3rd.

The Trojan athletes earlier evaded their section record at two wins against two losses, defeating visiting Belleville Altheif 76-63.

Pointmakers included: Two-mile relay — Jerry Brooks, Robert Booker, Kevin Rogers and Cecil Cross 1st (9:14); 440 relay — Duane Bochantin, Sylvester Collins, James Heard and Earnest Davenport 1st (46.9 seconds); 120 hurdles — Ron Morris 1st (17.5), Alfred Crawford 2nd; 100 dash — Heard 2nd, Morris 3rd; 800 run — Bochantin 3rd; 440 — Davenport 1st (52 seconds), Mike Bartley 2nd; 330 low hurdles — Morris 1st (43.7), Leonard King 3rd.

Mile run — Cross 1st (5:18); 220 dash — Heard 2nd, two-mile run — Marcus Ivy 3rd; shot put — Heard 3rd; discus — Jeff Thompson 1st (115-2); long jump — Crawford 1st (19-4); triple jump — Crawford 1st (41 feet); high jump — Rodney Williams 2nd.

Tennis shutout

Madison High School's netmen were blanked 3-0 Tuesday at East St. Louis High School. Wally Rajewski lost 4-10, John Palchiff 0-10, Don Boyer 1-10, Palchiff-Boyer 2-10 in doubles and Greg McCoy-Leonard Leleuenskis 0-10.

TRACK SOPHOMORES

NINTH IN BIG MEET
The sophomore track and field team of GCHS South scored nine points in a 17-school meet at Lindbergh High in Missouri, with Warrior Dave Mahaffey placing second in long jump competition.

Host Lindbergh won with 72 points. Vainney High had 33, Desmet 32, Northwest 29, Herculeanum 25, Ladue 16, Hazelwood West and St. Louis University High 13 each, GC South nine, Ritenour eight, Mehlville and Oakville six each, Hazelwood Central five, Affton four, Parkway Central two and Fox and Prep North none.

BASEBALL RAINED OUT

A baseball contest Tuesday between Carlyle and host GCHS South failed to materialize as earlier rain forced postponement due to a wet diamond. It will be rescheduled at a later date.

In Memoriam 33

In Loving Memory of OTHA POOLE who passed away one year ago April 21, 1976
 Sadly missed by Wife, Children Brothers and Sisters 33 4 21

In Loving Memory of HENRY R. YOUNG
 April 27, 1975
 He left us quietly. His thoughts unknown. He thought us a memory. We are proud to own. So treasure him, Lord. In your garden of rest. For when on earth, he was one of the best.
 Dear Lord, take a message In heaven above. Tell him we miss him And give him our love. Wife and Sons 33 4 25

In Loving Memory of ANNA "CHOMKO" ADAMSON
 April 22, 1972
 Remembrance is a golden chain Death tries to break but all in vain;
 Above, to love, and then to part is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
 The years may wipe out many things, But this they wipe out never—The memory of those happy days. When we were all together. There is a link death cannot sever. Love and remembrance last forever.
 Sadly missed by Family and Friends 33 4 21

Prayer breakfast emphasis on concern for other people

"Christian Love" and concern for all elements of the community was the theme of the Rev. Charlotte Zachary who spoke Sunday morning at the annual "Prayer Breakfast" of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW).

The event attended by approximately 150 members, guests, public officials and civic leaders, was held in the Madison Recreation Center.

The Rev. Zachary assumed her duties as pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church of Madison on April 1. She is the first woman minister of the church in Madison.

After a buffet breakfast, Mrs. Valerie Stevens led the pledge of allegiance, which was followed by Mrs. Louise Lewis singing "The Lord's Prayer."

The Rev. Paul Surbey, pastor of St. John United Church of Christ, offered the invocation.

Mrs. Sylvia Wright, president of the BPW, then welcomed everyone on behalf of the club. Mrs. Ollie Derr, co-chairman of the breakfast, introduced those seated at the head table and other guests.

Among the distinguished guests present were: State Senator Sam Vadalabene, Representative Joseph Lucco, Circuit Judge Horace Calvo, Mayor and Mrs. Mike Sasyk of Madison, Mayor and Mrs.

William Ebersoldt of Venice and Mayor and Mrs. Paul Schuler of Granite City.

Special musical segments were presented by David O'Dell, who sang "How Great Thou Art" and "What the World Needs Now"; Mrs. Lewis sang "Amazing Grace." They were accompanied by Mrs. Stevens at the piano.

BPW breakfast committee members were: Mrs. Derr and Mrs. Billie Schuler co-chairman; assisted by Mrs. Judith McCann, Mrs. Barbara Hodges, Mrs. Valerie Evenden, Mrs. Rose Ezell, Mrs. Rose Stephenson, Mrs. Florence Moore, Mrs. Delores Klesh, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Stevens.

Those attending each received a letter opener, engraved with the "praying hands," club name and date, as a memento. The speaker previously announced, the Rev. J. Albert Calaway, who was unable to attend due to illness in his family, Mrs. Derr said.

Bethel 43 hosts advance night

Bethel 43, Order of Job's Daughters observed "advance night" last week with the line officers of the Bethel advancing one station.

Those participating in the event were Robin McBee who proceeded to honored queen, Michelle Root, to senior princess, Kay Gant to junior princess and Tracy Dimock to guide. Miss Patty Brokaw, a past honored queen of the Bethel, served as Marshal.

Kim Rapp, honored queen, conducted the business segment, and announced final plans to attend the state convention to be held in Chicago from April 27 through May 1. Other forthcoming events of interest included a fund raising project, a bake sale to be held at the Kroger Store mall from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday. Members will attend church together on Sunday at the First United Presbyterian Church and will form the living cross during the 10:45 a.m. service. Refreshments were served after the meeting to 52 members and parents. The next meeting will begin at 7 p.m. on April 26.

APARTMENT BURGLARY
A shotgun worth $350 and a $350 clock were stolen from the apartment of Tom Skubish, 2945 Village Lane, between 8 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. Monday. The front door knob was twisted off with some kind of tool.

"Mike" Ebersoldt is at center. Next to him are Mrs. Ebersoldt, Mrs. Sasyk and Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk. Also present were State Sen. Sam Vadalabene (D-56th Legislative District) and Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler and Mrs. Schuler. Mrs. Schuler served as co-chairman of the annual breakfast. About 150 attended.

Capitol may change from oil to coal

Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon has called for a feasibility study to determine the economic and environmental impact of converting the Capitol Complex steam generating plant from oil to coal-fired boilers.

Steam from the facility, located at Klein and Mason in Springfield, is used to heat and cool state buildings in the Capitol area.

Saying that environmental protection will rank high in his consideration of the possible conversion, Dixon has asked the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency to supply his office with smokestack emission data relating to the burning of Illinois high-sulfur coal.

"If the cost analysis and environmental study both prove favorable," Dixon said, "I can see no reason why we should continue to import foreign oil to heat and cool the Capitol Complex. Approximately 50 percent of the nation's oil is imported."

"If conversion to coal proves a sound move, I will modify the fiscal year 1977-78 secretary of state's appropriation bill to accommodate the necessary work."

Dixon said Illinois "has been blessed with the largest deposit of soft coal in the United States. Converting the state's steam plant to coal would have a positive economic effect on the lives of Illinois miners as well as on their communities."

Posts bond in assault case

Mark D. Cochran, 21, of 2919 Palmer Ave., was released from custody during the weekend after posting $50 cash bond on a charge of aggravated assault.

The charge was filed after two Madison women said they were threatened at 5:25 p.m. Saturday while walking to their auto parked at the Crossroads Shopping Center near Nameoki Road.

Granite City police said the women were stopped by a man and a woman in an auto who instructed them to get out of town.

The man allegedly placed a pistol to the head of one and pulled the trigger while threatening them before driving away, police reported.

Cochran was arrested at Palmer Avenue and Nameoki Road after police said that his auto matched a description of that provided by the victims.

FRESH AS DAISIES are members of this group of walkers on the first leg of the 10-mile March of Dimes Walkathon held this week in Granite City to aid the "fight against birth defects" program. Patrolman Joseph Kastelic Jr. (center) guides the youthful participants safely across Nameoki Road at the Jill Avenue intersection shortly after the event started at 1 p.m.

from the Wilson Park rink-pavilion, Jack Haug, a Prather JHS counselor and Walkathon chairman, said more than 600 walkers took part. Most were young people from the two Granite City high schools and three junior high schools, who competed to raise the most money and walkers representing each individual school building.

State fiscal outlook still has imbalance

State spending and receipts remain on target with budget estimates after the first nine months of the 1976-77 fiscal year, Bureau of the Budget Director Robert L. Mandeville says.

"Reviewing the experience of the first three quarters of the fiscal year," Mandeville said, "we note that the state's general fund balance was $113 million as we entered the fourth quarter."

"This is where we said we would be in our last quarterly report, which adds credibility to our revenue estimates of $5.92 billion and spending estimates of $5.99 billion."

Based on the state's performance through March 31, he said, the overall fiscal plan presented in the governor's budget remains intact.

"This is a big contrast with the last two years in which significant changes were required during the closing days of the legislative session," Mandeville said.

He indicated the state will end 1976-77 with a general fund available balance of $48 million.

"This situation underscores the importance of holding new spending to the approximate $300 million rise set down in the budget. Nothing that has happened in the last two months changes the bureau's position as presented in our last quarterly report and in the fiscal 1977-78 budget," Mandeville said.

"It is critical that the state not repeat the mistakes of the last two years. We must stop promising to spend money we do not have."

"We must return to a balanced budget in 1977-78. Quite simply, we must not spend all of our new revenue."

Part of the increased revenue in 1977-78, Mandeville said, must be used to erase the deficit spending of the current year, and some of it to raise the year-end available balance to a higher level in 1977-78.

On other topics, Mandeville re-emphasized a need to limit deficiencies to those needed to maintain essential state services and finance the required costs of welfare and senior citizens' tax relief.

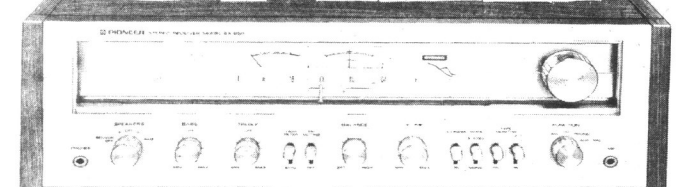

He also repeated an earlier statement that the state's cash flow tightness will continue through the remainder of this calendar year.

Mandeville pointed to the available balance expected after the common school payment is made on the 15th of a typical month. The available balance is low then, he said, probably less than $30 million.

"Those who advocate added spending above present budget levels are doing a disservice to the state by raising false hopes. They are falling into the trap of the past two years."

"It is vital that we not be misled for a third year in a row. There is no bank account to bail us out again this year. We must put our fiscal house back in order in fiscal 1978," Mandeville concluded.

VERSATILE ATHLETE. Madison's Brian Eaves, a Madison High School student and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eaves, wears a Trojan baseball uniform as a member of the school team during the day, and on Saturday evenings he sheds it to wear the costume of an auto racing driver. Eaves, 17, started his "rookie" season during the weekend as a sportsman class stock car driver at Tri-City Speedway, placing third in a heat race and then finishing 10th in the feature event. Following a Trojan baseball twinnish Saturday at Alton Marquette, Eaves again will climb behind the wheel of his race car. His father, a member of the Madison School Board, and his brother, Jeff, will be turning the wrenches in the pits to help keep the car in top condition.

Women Cougars capture softball tournament title

For the second consecutive weekend, the women softball Cougars of SIUE have clinched first place in tournament softball action. The Cougars won all four of their games to bring home their own trophy at the SIUE invitational.

They racked up their initial victory of the weekend over the University of Evansville Purple Aces in a rout, 25-1. The Cougars tallied nine runs in the first, four in the second, six in the third and three each in the fourth and fifth innings. Freshman Tammy Rainwater held the Aces to only two hits while her teammates accumulated 14 runs. The Cougars next downed the Indians of Southeast Missouri State University in five innings, 13-3. The local squad took a 4-0 lead in the first and never relinquished it. Again, Tammy Rainwater gained the victory. The Cougars faced arch-rival Greenville College for the tournament trophy. The SIUE women were ready and rattled their bats for a 6-1 victory.

First Baseman Kathy Going led off the first inning with a walk. She stole second and scored when shortstop Jayne Bertoglio's fly was dropped by the Panthers' rightfielder. In the second, Second Baseman Jane O'Laughlin

Track Cougars 4th in big meet

Mark Mueller was the only winner for the SIUE track and field team at Wisconsin-Parkside in Kenosha during the weekend but the Cougars still totaled 81 points to finish fourth in the 10-team event.

University of Wisconsin-Whitewater was the overall champion with 176 points. Wisconsin-Parkside was second with 143 and Wisconsin-Oshkosh just nipped the Cougars for third place with 84 points.

Mueller also captured second place in the shot put with a toss of 50 feet 10 inches. His throw in the discus was 15-9. Tom Rhodes was fifth in the discus at 13-7.

Mike Grandcolas of SIUE was second in the 100 meters with a time of 11 seconds and Stan Vannier grabbed second place in the 400-meter intermediate hurdles in 56.9.

In this place for the Cougars of Coach Jack Whitted were Gary Gentry in the 120-yard high hurdles (15 seconds), the mile relay team of Nate Rice, Norman Robinson, Deayne Allen and Allen Murray (3:36.3) and the 440 relay team of Danny Schallenberg, Gentry, Anthony Vinson and Grandcolas (4:42 seconds).

SIUE will be in the Kansas University Relays through Saturday in Lawrence, Ka.

Six-game baseball meet for 4 teams here this weekend

GCHS South baseball mentor Conrad "Babe" Champion has announced the playing schedule for this weekend's four-school baseball round-robin tournament involving Centralia, Niles East (Skokie), GCHS North and host South.

Champion noted that a year ago teams from Peoria, Johnston City and Blytheville, Ark., competed here along with the two Granite City schools.

"It is tabbed as a round-robin because eventually each team will play the others, and it is also an opportunity for players from different regions to get together."

Competition will be held on Diamond One at Wilson Park and at South High's new field on Felling Road north of the Granite City football stadium.

The schedule:

FRIDAY, April 22
Centralia vs. North 4 p.m. (Wilson Park)

Niles East vs. South 4 p.m. (South field)

SATURDAY, April 23

Niles East vs. North 10:30 a.m. (Wilson Park)

Two get Eagle rank

Keith Sanders, 17, and Johnny C. Sands, 17, received Eagle Scout awards at the Knights of Columbus Hall with representatives of Troops 98 and 146 and Explorer Post 10-4 participating.

Sanders is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders, 4777 Highway 162. A senior at Granite City High School North, he lettered in track, football and wrestling, is a member of the Letterman's Club and the National Honor Society plus Quill and Scroll.

Sands has 24 merit badges and has served as a den chief, patrol leader, senior patrol leader and member of the leadership corps.

Active in the Order of the Arrow, Scouting's national honor camping society, Sands has served as ceremony chairman, election chairman and on the ceremonial team of the Cahokia Lodge.

He worked on the aquatics staff of Camp Sunmen for the past two years.

Upon graduation, Sands intends to enroll in Southern Illinois University Edwardsville and study accounting.

Keith Sanders, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sanders, 1845 Rhodes St., Madison.

Sanders is a junior at Marquette High School, Alton, where he played football. He also is active in the Granite City Park District Hockey program.

Sanders is treasurer of Explorers Post 10-4 in Madison and also is active with Troop 146.

He also is active in the Arrow and is currently Cahokia Lodge secretary, having served as lodge vice-chief, pancake breakfast chairman and on the ceremonial team.

Sanders is interested in a career in law enforcement and plans to pursue a college education in a related field.

Participating in the Eagle ceremony were: John Richard Hooks of Madison, adviser to Explorer Post 10-4; William Monical, scout executive of the Cahokia Mound Council; Ned Freeman, district executive; Dale Potter, scoutmaster of Troop 146; Bobby Patton, assistant scoutmaster Troop 23; Robert Mosie, commissioner; Nick Tsigalaroff, an Eagle Scout in Troop 5, and Bruce Rotter, associate adviser of Post 10-4.

Both Sanders and Sands were presented with the Elks Lodge Americanism Award by Clyde Mertz of Elks Lodge 1063.

Steel industry employment rebounded in February from the effects of the severest winter in recent years, newly available statistics showed this week.

The American Iron and Steel Institute said 326,700 hourly workers were employed by steelmakers during the month. This was an increase of 1,723 workers from January, when severe weather conditions and fuel shortages cut into production and forced layoffs that dropped hourly worker employment to an 11-month low of 324,977 persons.

Total steel industry employment — including salaried and hourly employees engaged in production and marketing of steel — has reached 441,394 persons. This compares with a total of 440,264 in January and 439,715 in February 1976.

Wage earners averaged 36.8 hours of employment per week in February, compared with slightly over 34 hours in January. Total employment costs per hour for hourly employees rose to $12.75 in February. These costs averaged $11.74 for the full year of 1976.

Domestic steel companies paid out $676.3 million in wages and salaries in February, making the total of such payments in the first two months of this year $1.36 billion.

May seek ambulance grant

The Pontoon Beach Village Board has requested grant applications to attempt to establish an ambulance service in the village. The board agreed to seek a state grant after being addressed by Steven Missey, Trauma Center coordinator for St. Elizabeth Hospital.

In other business, the board voted to increase the monthly expense allowance of Village Board President Floyd David Moss from $120 to $175 per month, and the expense allowance of Village Clerk Mary Warren from $40 to $60. The per diem pay of $40 per meeting each was not changed. The per diem pay of trustees was set at $30, bringing all the trustees to the same per diem.

Those elected two years ago have been receiving $20 per meeting. The expense allowance for trustees was increased from $30 to $60.

Executive orders on interest conflicts, campaign soliciting

Governor James R. Thompson issued executive orders during the weekend designed to deter or expose conflicts of interest on the part of individuals under his jurisdiction, and to prohibit campaign fund solicitation by any of his appointees.

In an address to members of the Chicago Bar Association, Thompson said the maintenance of high standards has been a cornerstone of both his campaign for governor and his legislative program.

He urged that the General Assembly pass his newly introduced ethics legislation in its entirety, but added that his executive orders alone "can raise our ethical standards today and for at least the duration of this administration."

"It will show by example that we not only support these proposals with words, but live by them."

Thompson's Executive Order on Personal Economic Disclosure replaces a previous executive order issued by former Governor Daniel Walker in 1973.

The new order calls for a three-member Board of Ethics, appointed by the governor, with expanded jurisdiction over all departments, agencies, boards and commissions to which the governor appoints the director or a majority of the members.

The new order would change the positions which required disclosure to include those who have authority to approve state purchases and employees who deal with issuing and complying with state contracts.

Also included would be those involved in the issuance of professional licenses, the financial inspection of regulated private entities, or the development of rules and regulations which would materially affect the public.

The board would also have the authority to determine whether additional positions in state government carry the potential for conflict of interest and could order disclosure from those individuals.

The order would alter disclosure requirements to include investment interests, sources of income, business positions, professional or occupational licenses held, and the source and value of all gifts of $50 or more received in the preceding year from any source doing business with or regulated by the state.

The economic statements would also include the name of the lender, the lenders' business and the terms for all loans over $500 from other than family or regulated financial institutions.

In addition, individuals would be required to list property holdings other than personal residence in which the person filing has a beneficial interest in excess of $5,000.

Thompson said another key change would require public inspection of all statements of economic interest filed with the board. Now, statements are kept confidential.

"In my view, economic disclosure is meaningless unless the public has a right to reasonable inspection," he said. In addition, the board would be compelled to identify all those who failed to file a statement.

tributions.

"We must entirely eliminate any suspicion that jobs will be sold or favors bestowed in return for political contributions," Thompson said.

"Therefore, I am barring gubernatorial appointees from demanding — or even requesting — political contributions from state employees who work for them and from private entities who do business with the government."

The order also prohibits all state officers and employees under the governor's jurisdiction from promising jobs, promotions or preferred treatment of any kind in return for political contributions.

Violation of the order is to result in disciplinary action, including discharge.

Thompson said his executive order fully reflects recommendations from his Committee on Governmental Ethics, whose membership included John Clarke, publisher of the State Journal Register; Gaylord Donnelly, chairman of the executive committee of R. R. Donnelly & Sons; Anna Langford, former Chicago alderman; George Lindberg, first assistant attorney general of Illinois; Cordell Overgaard, a current member of the State Board of Ethics; and James Rahl, dean of the Northwestern University School of Law.

Airline deregulation would increase air traffic volume, Percy, Stevenson say

(Press-Record)
Washington Bureau)

Illinois should start banking land for a new St. Louis area airport despite a recent federal rebuff, Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson and Sen. Charles H. Percy agree.

They believe pressures are building for airline deregulation to generate traffic, and that the Columbia-Waterloo site in Illinois will ultimately be one of the chief beneficiaries.

Stevenson has confirmed that he and Percy recommended the Illinois Purchase as a response to Transportation Secretary Brock Adams' cancellation of federal funds for land on the Illinois side of the Mississippi River.

Percy announced the recommendation immediately after a strategy meeting with state and airport officials.

In response to reporters' questions, Percy said he was certain Stevenson had concurred in the recommendation. Governor James Thompson, however, has disagreed with them on the site purchase issue.

Percy, meanwhile, testified before the Senate Commerce Committee's subcommittee on aviation in support of airline deregulation.

"Regulation is starting to price air travel out of the reach of too many Americans," the Illinois Republican said.

He cited deep cuts in service at Springfield, Peoria, Moline, Rockford, Bloomington, Champaign, Urbana and Mattoon-Charleston as well as a severe imbalance of use at Chicago's O'Hare and Midway Airports.

O'Hare is saturated and Midway is severely underused, he said.

"By 1990," Percy testified, "it is estimated that the airlines will require $65 billion in capital investment."

"The present industry return-on-investment of 3.6 per cent simply will not attract the capital required. Fuel and labor costs are rising constantly, with no end in sight.

"There are only two ways the airlines can meet these costs: revitalized, profitable, competitive service or a government dole. Everything possible should be done to insure that the first course is followed."

Stevenson and Percy say the deregulation issue must be resolved and they appear optimistic that it will be.

They also say Illinois must be ready for the freeing of pent-up air service demand.

Stevenson, in an interview, said a major St. Louis airport on the Illinois side "will still have to be built" despite Adams' reversal of former Transportation Secretary William Coleman's decision favoring Illinois.

"Percy and I both recommended that if the federal government does not go ahead with land banking, the state should go ahead on its own," he said, adding that it is their opinion that the existing Lambert Airport in Missouri continues "to be incapable of expanding" its site.

In addition to proceedings with land banking, Illinois should also decide "to oppose" Missouri's quest for federal aid to expand Lambert, he said.

Stevenson said he hopes "to get the fact out" further to allay speculation, chiefly in the press, that Lambert will be expanded.

He said Adams' decision is not irrevocable and that, in fact, all the secretary has done at this juncture is to decide against going ahead now—on the theory that the need for increased capacity will not arrive until the 1990s.

Stevenson and Percy say, however, that Illinois land should be "banked" now as a hedge against increasing costs.

"When we get through with airline deregulation," Stevenson said, "it will determine demand in this area." This can only go up, he and Percy insist.

Discussing Adams' decision with reporters, Percy said that it is "no reason for us to back up at all."

Percy said Gov. James Thompson earlier put $4.2 million as a line item in his budget for land acquisition to match expected federal funding.

"We should acquire property now," Percy said. "We have authority to do that and we have recommended that we do that."

"We ought to go right ahead and look to the future and provide for the future."

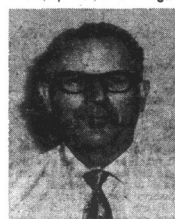

Percy said the state would not be taking a risk in buying farmland for the airport because values are increasing all the time. Even if the land is not used soon, it can continue to be farmed profitably, he asserted.

The strategy meeting included, besides Percy and Stevenson, Lt. Gov. Dave O'Neal, Arven Saunders, executive director of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority, William S. Badgley, chairman of the Authority, and Jim Johnson, attorney for the authority with the firm of Sidley and Austin, Chicago.

Beverly Scroggins has Masquers lead

The Masquers will present the Broadway comedy, "Forty Carats," Saturday and Sunday, at the Granite City High School South auditorium.

Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. Mrs. Beverly Scroggins, of Granite City, stars in the production of the story about a 40-year-old divorcee who falls in love with a 22-year-old boy while on vacation in Greece. Back home in New York, where she runs a lucrative real estate business, the divorcee has the problems of her mother and 17-year-old daughter, as well as those of her ex-husband.

Mrs. Scroggins assumes the lead role of Ann Stanley with theatrical and musical experience. She is a speech instructor and technical director at Granite City High School South where she is currently directing "Name".

She also supervises the design and construction of stage scenery at both Granite City High Schools. Mrs. Scroggins has acted in summer stock theaters in Branson, Mo., and Springfield, Ill. She will direct the musical "George M." in June for the Masquers.

Most recently, Mrs. Scroggins has directed "Alice in Wonderland" and "Fiddler on the Roof," and has had starring roles in "Kiss Me Kate," "South Pacific," and "1776." She attended Northwestern University and SIU, receiving a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theater.

Jack French plays the daytime drama star, Billy Boylan, Ann Stanley's ex-husband. French currently is Recently he was seen in "South Pacific," "Alice in Wonderland," and "1776." She attended Northwestern University and SIU, receiving a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theater.

Judy Padgett, a self-employed artist, Mrs. Padgett played Aunt Polly in "Tom Sawyer." She also designed scenery for many Masquer productions, including "Peter Pan," "Alice in Wonderland," and "Hansel and Gretel." She is also president of the Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society.

Filling the role of Mrs. Margolin, Ann's secretary and dispenser of free advice, is Mrs. Shirley Sobolewski. She has been in the Masquers productions of "Tom Sawyer" and "Peter Pan," where she played the role of Nana the nursemaid.

The show is under the direction of Tim Quinn of Collinsville, with John Mefford of Granite City assisting. Mefford served with Masquers in many areas on and off stage. He has worked as stage manager, scenic designer, and director, and received best actor awards for his performances in "1776," "The Crucible," and "Wait Until Dark."

The Masquers is a not-for-profit community theater organization. Ticket prices are $1 and $2. For further information, Quad-Cityans may contact Mefford at 451-5785.

River lock legislation during May

Washington Bureau)

As the issue of Locks and Dam 26 nears Congressional action and perhaps even final resolution, it remains as deeply embroiled in controversy as ever, after years of pulling and hauling by special interests.

Besides the emergent issue of a waterway user's fee, which is being tied ever closer to the replacement of the facility itself, there is the argument recently joined here over which studies are best.

Proposals have come from the General Accounting Office, the Western Railroad Association, the Army Corps of Engineers, the U.S. Department of Transportation and the Illinois Department of Transportation, and yet another from a consulting firm.

Most came under criticism as the Senate Public Works Committee's Water Resources Subcommittee began promised new hearings this month.

Sverdrup and Parcel and Associates of St. Louis, a consulting firm commissioned by the National Committee on Locks and Dam 26, examined the various plans and called the Army's the "soundest and most cost effective."

The latest Corps recommendation calls for a 1,200-foot lock, two miles downstream from Alton, which would last 50 years and require minimum repair.

An Illinois Department of Transportation plan for a new 1,200-foot lock near Alton entails "uncertainty and risk" even when adjusted for major engineering improvements, the consultants said, adding that it would cost almost as much as the Army proposal. A new lock within the present dam would create serious accident hazards, it is felt.

The consultants resuracted an earlier General Accounting Office evaluation of rehabilitation schemes and faulted it for not examining the "adequacy, integrity and soundness" of repair proposals, including one made by the Western Railroad Association.

The WRA plan called for "dewatering" each lock during repair.

The consultants said this is impracticable because the walls are cracked in the 38-year-old locks.

GAO, in adjusting WRA and Illinois DOT plans, nearly doubled the costs and yet failed to make either workable from an engineering standpoint, the study contends.

The consultants looked at still another proposal, this one calling for a new lock on the Missouri bank. They said this is not feasible because of navigational difficulties and manpower needs for separate facilities on opposite banks.

The U.S. Department of Transportation took its lumps from 11 senators, including Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson, D-Ill., for a report forecasting that maximum capacity of the locks will not be reached until 1980. It is a drastic "underestimation" that does not take into account the decade to build a replacement — and the barge tow jam-ups during the peak harvest season — said the senators, abetted by farm, labor, utility and shipping spokesmen.

The senators jointly proposed a 1,200-foot replacement lock. The Water Resources Subcommittee is pledged to have a bill ready by the middle of May.

Theft of coins

Collector's coins valued at about $129 were stolen during a burglary at the home of Thomas Gushleff, 3408 Lydia Lane, between 6:30 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. Monday.

The basement window near the southeast corner was kicked in and entry was gained by crawling through the window. A door from the basement to the living area also was kicked open.

The color television set was moved, but was left in the house. Stolen was a sack containing about $25 in foreign coins, a one-dollar gold piece valued at $100, and four half-dollars.

WOOD RIVER FLOOD CONTROL BOND FUND

Governor James R. Thompson has released $700,000 in capital development bond funds for a Wood River flood control project in Madison County. The money will be used for construction of road crossings and channel improvements as part of an overall project tentatively scheduled for completion in the 1980-81 fiscal year.

The completed project will provide flood protection for portions of Wood River and East Alton. The state share of the project is about $6,600,000, with the City of Wood River contributing $1 million for necessary right-of-way. Upon the project's completion, Wood River will assume operation and maintenance costs.

Many youngsters lack polio, measles shots

By JOHN R. SANTORO
Regional Emergency Medical Services Coordinator Region Four,
Illinois Department of Public Health

A recent survey of two-year-old children in Illinois Region 4 revealed that only nineteen per cent were immunized against polio. Eighty-one per cent of these children's parents, therefore, are flinching with disaster.

Poliomyelitis is a killer disease. And those who survive may face years of physical therapy in order to re-educate leg, arm and chest muscles. The death rate after infection ranges from five to 10 per cent. Those people born in the 1950s or afterward have little or no consciousness of such thoughts as The March of Dimes, Sister Elizabeth Kenny, the iron lung, and the fear of stiff necks, swimming pools and crowded theaters.

This region's largest epidemic was in 1949. St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis opened an entire section for rehabilitation of victims.

The five summers of 1951 through 1955 produced 80,000 paralytic cases in the United States. Franklin D. Roosevelt was struck down in the 1920s after serving as secretary of the Navy. His tenacious fight to recover use of his limbs inspired other victims.

He was never again able to walk unaided, but he went on to win four terms as President of the United States. They called it infantile paralysis and the Air Force transported victims to treatment centers around the country in lightweight iron lungs.

Iron lungs were made to operate on household current, aircraft current, batteries and hand cranks. If the iron lung stopped, the patient would die. The vaccine was introduced in 1956 and the nation "took its medicine" in a way that makes the recent swine flu effort a minor event.

In five years, paralytic polio was down 80 per cent. In five more years, it was down another 90 per cent. By 1968, there were only 18 cases reported and people almost forgot polio.

In 1971, of 185 two-year-olds checked, 150 were unprotected. Polio is an epidemic disease. In Freiburg, West Germany, five children aged nine months to eight years were struck down over a ten-day period in 1975.

This year, near Stockholm, a two-year-old female was stricken in January and another in February.

In South America, Central America, Africa and Southern Asia, polio is on the rise. Each summer there is a flare-up of cases in areas of the United States where people have forgotten to protect themselves with immunizations.

Polio is a forgotten disease that may be remembered with sorrow. Charles E. Jennings, regional immunization representative for the IDPH, reported that a survey of 3,000 elementary school children showed 233 had no protection against another disease — measles.

Each of the parents of these 233 children was sent a letter and a short form to complete, giving permission to immunize their child. There was a stamped, addressed envelope in the letter for the parents' convenience.

Thirty-three replied. Two hundred did not. Complacency? Lack of concern?

Measles perhaps has been so

United Methodist Church, East 25th and Henry Streets. They are accompanied by piano, drums and guitars and the public is invited to attend, according to the host pastor, the Rev. Paul Bryant.

common that people tend to think of it as a routine childhood disease. But measles can kill and maim.

Some complications: severe ear infections, pneumonia, strabismus (from croup), convulsive seizures (encephalitis), damage to unborn children and vision damage, to name a few.

There is no cause for measles, just as there is no cure for polio. The Illinois School Code requires that children be immunized before entering kindergarten. The immunizations should be for diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough, measles and polio.

The school code authorizes children to be immunized in school during the fifth and ninth grades. These latter immunizations are boosters to the protection that should have been given prior to kindergarten.

Somehow, some children don't get protected. Somehow, parents must see to it that they are.

The price for apathy, if it is ever paid, is far too excessive. Young parents of today who were born in the 1950s may never have seen a photograph of or heard the endless drone of a ponderous, gray iron lung, but does it matter?

Shouldn't protection of their children against ruinous disease be equal to providing clean clothes, wholesome food and Mother Goose books?

Student's wallets stolen at South

Six wallets were stolen from purses left in room 230 at Granite City High School South during a chemistry class Monday.

The students had been in the classroom and had moved to the adjoining laboratory, leaving purses and books at their desks. Someone entered and removed all the wallets from the six purses left in the classroom.

Victims were Janet Elmore, Paula Gray, Margy Roth, Jane Mateosian, Alice Hoffman and Glenda Jones. Cash in the wallets totaled $56. The wallets also contained identification papers, credit cards and other items.

Some wallets were later found in wastebaskets in the school. The money had been removed.

Scientists will discuss life on planets, energy

Scientists from Illinois and Missouri will confer April 29 and 30 at the University of Missouri-St. Louis during the 1977 joint meeting of the Illinois State Academy of Science (ISAS), Missouri Academy of Science (MAS), Illinois section of the American Association of Physics Teachers (AAPT) and Missouri section of the Mathematical Association of America (MAA).

Dr. Donald L. DeVincenzi, assistant division chief of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Extraterrestrial Biology Division, is keynote speaker for the annual meeting. He will describe the Viking experiments and the search for life on Mars.

DeVincenzi, a biochemist, joined the Ames Research Center near Mountain View, Calif., in 1968 as a National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council postdoctoral associate. He served as a research scientist in the Biological Adaptation Branch in 1969-71.

In 1971, he was selected as technical assistant to the director of life sciences. In 1972-73 he spent a year in the Planetary Biology Program office at NASA headquarters in Washington, D.C., and was selected for his present position in 1974.

The meeting will begin Friday, April 29, at 9 a.m. in the J.C. Penney Building at UMSL. During the day, division meetings will take place.

A workshop on the Advanced Physics Placement Test program by Will Pfeiffer, associate examiner in science of the Educational Testing Service, will be held.

At other times during the day, papers by members of the Academy of Science will be presented till 4:30 p.m., when the meeting will adjourn.

Other activities during the day will include: a lecture by Barry Flachbart of McDonnell-Douglas Corp. on "Some Aspects of Mathematics in Computer Graphic"; a lecture, "Mathematical Models of Doom," by Saunders MacLane of the University of Chicago at 4 p.m.; and a film on Escher Art at 5 p.m.

At 6:30 p.m., a banquet will be held in the Rivermen Dining Room on campus. At 7:30 p.m. in the Penney Auditorium, awards and recognition will be given and installation of the MAS president will be held.

Steven G. Sanders, professor of physics at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, will introduce the keynote speaker, Dr. DeVincenzi, who will give his public lecture at 9:15 p.m. in the Penney Auditorium.

On Saturday, April 30, two symposia will be held from 9 a.m. to noon in the J.C. Penney Building. Charles Proctor Jr., administrator of community affairs-nuclear, Union Electric and A. J. Michener, project engineer, Laclede Gas Co., will speak on energy.

Robert C. Brier, director of Southeast Missouri Crime Laboratory, will conduct a symposium on forensic sciences.

At other times during the day, papers by members of the Academy of Science will be presented till 4:30 p.m., when the meeting will adjourn.

Voters show confidence in three municipal administrations in the Quad-Cities on Tuesday; new park commissioner Surprises were scarce in Tuesday's balloting in the Cities of Madison and Venice, the Granite City Park District and the Village of Pontoon Beach.

In the latter, there were only a few write-in votes as three incumbents, Pontoon Beach trustees, Paul L. Bennett, Donald C. Rea and Raymond L. Gaudette Jr., won new four-year terms.

Mayor Mike Sasyk won a third term as chief executive of Madison, achieving a decisive margin of 1,745 to 311. City Treasurer Hilbert Hoekstra also won comfortably, 1,408 to 640.

In the only Madison ward where there was competition, Frank Dutko was an easy victor, 351 to two opponents' 101 and 31. The new alderman is retiring as chief of police, and Donald Bridick was appointed Tuesday night as his successor.

Venice city officials won without opposition for seven of the eight positions decided. In the Third Ward, veteran Alderman John Ervin gained re-election, 314 to 59.

Winning a second term, Venice Mayor William M. Ebersold led the ticket with 993 votes.

Although voting was light in the Granite City Park District, competition was intense. John "Jeff" Wornat, a charter park commissioner, led with 698 votes and Barry Loman was re-elected to the board with 641.

The other park incumbent seeking re-election, Henry R. Gabriel, garnered 521 votes and was defeated for a six-year term.

All of those elected in the four taxing districts have the ability to serve capably and selflessly in determining policies for the administration of their governmental entities. Citizens wish them well in the difficult task of improving services while keeping a reasonable rein on costs.

Government best friend, worst foe of an energy balance

President Jimmy Carter is right in strongly asserting this week that severe energy problems face Americans. Consumerist Ralph Nader and others, unfortunately, have been largely successful in convincing the population that the energy crisis is merely a figment of over-active imaginations.

There, of course, is an adequate gasoline supply at one's neighborhood service station these days, but in a potential international disagreement this nation is steadily losing the flexibility needed to chart its own course. The U. S. must not accept a posture of such weakness that it could be dictated to by foreign powers.

While it is good that the subject of energy is receiving major emphasis, many believe that conservation efforts involving punitive taxation are unfair and probably doomed to failure. Numerous persons have little real choice about continuing regular use of private autos in reaching their place of work and other necessary destinations.

Perhaps much more attention should be given to unclogging the path toward expansion of energy reserves. An example of the complexities is the current federal push toward coal utilization, several years after general use of Illinois' abundant coal supply has been drastically curbed by governmental edict.

Oil and natural gas exploration along the Atlantic coast currently is being delayed by the government. And Illinois Power Co. and other utilities have encountered numerous government-inspired frustrations and delays in the attempt to provide electricity from nuclear power.

Oil shale usage and coal-to-gas conversion remain principally in a theoretical status.

Government administrators and the courts at some time soon are going to have to re-orient their outlook and priorities, if the imbalance between fuel supply and need is to be corrected.

President faces dire challenges — bureaucratic wordiness

Press-Record Washington Bureau — President Carter has learned that even a dedication to speed-reading is no defense against the fusillades of paperwork in the government.

He has appealed to his aides to go easy on the memos they expect him to read, and has revoked his order requiring Cabinet members to read each new regulation issued by their departments.

Mr. Carter thus had his baptism of fire in a war against official wordiness that has lasted longer than the war in Vietnam. Having withdrawn to his foxhole to rest his eyes, he faces a tactical problem: how to knock out the enemy artillery.

Now if he were John Wayne, he'd call for volunteers for a do-or-die mission — a commando force to penetrate enemy lines and pull the plugs on all those electric typewriters and copying machines. It would be risky, but that's how heroes are made.

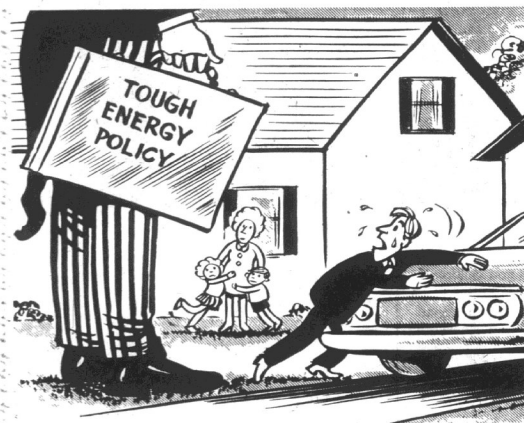

Industrial park concept continues to succeed in this area

The industrial park concept continues to be a winner.

The Stephen Maeras Industrial Park administered by the City of Madison will be the scene of groundbreaking ceremonies April 25 for a new $2 million steel fabrication plant of the Southwestern Steel Supply Co. The operating staff is expected to total 85 employees.

Participants in the negotiations for the plant have included Mayor Mike Sasyk and Quad-City bankers, who arranged the financing.

Additional utility-served, accessible manufacturing tracts undoubtedly could be put into active use if they were established in the Quad-City area.

Local or state teacher pensions?

(Illinois Association of School Boards)

The Illinois Association of School Boards will continue to oppose legislative attempts to require boards of education to share the responsibility of funding the Illinois Teachers' Retirement System.

It is anticipated that the trustees of the Illinois Teachers' Retirement System will seek legislation requiring local taxpayers to contribute to the retirement system in order to meet alleged obligations of the state.

IASB contends that financial responsibility for the retirement system should not be shifted to local taxpayers because it would have an adverse effect on local revenue resources and reduce the school districts' ability to provide direct educational services to students.

Furthermore, IASB suggests that the system at present is adequately funded and questions whether an unfunded liability in the pension plan exists.

The authorization and perhaps viability for the Teachers' Retirement System are contained in paragraphs 15, 16 and 17 of Chapter 108 1/2 of the Illinois Revised Statutes and Section 5, Article XIII of the 1970 Illinois Constitution, which may provide some protection for the system against bankruptcy.

The Pension Code establishes membership and benefits of the system and authorizes its administration by a nine-member board of trustees.

Four of the members are appointed by the governor, four are elected by contributors to the pension system and the state superintendent of education serves as chairman.

Prior to 1915, the system depended upon mandatory flat-rate contributions by teachers, supplemented by General Assembly appropriations.

By 1929, it became obvious that this method of financing was inadequate.

The General Assembly then provided for mandatory contributions based on a percentage of each teacher's salary, supplemented by state appropriations intended to cover benefits annually earned by contributors and administrative costs.

However, since that time, the Assembly usually has appropriated monies adequate only for payment of retiree benefits and administrative costs, but not the cost of benefits accrued by teachers still employed and contributing to the system.

Teachers and pension trustees argue that this has resulted in a liability which the state has an obligation to pay. They point out that teachers' contributions to the system now total $1.4 billion, but that accrued benefits exceed by $3.3 billion.

Teachers and retirement system trustees contend that the $1.9 billion difference between member contributions and accrued benefits represents an unfunded liability or deficit. They argue that certain sections of the statutes and constitution, which they contend establish a contractual relationship between teachers and the state.

They contend that teachers honor their part of the bargain by annual salary contributions. Therefore, the state should honor its part by funding the unfunded liability as well as administrative costs.

The proponents of this theory propose that school boards, in a four-year period, match the present eight per cent of salary contribution made by teachers.

Their legislative plan would require teachers to contribute five per cent of teachers' earnings during the first year, six per cent in the second year, seven per cent in the third year and eight per cent thereafter.

With this plan generating more than $100 million a year by 1979, the Illinois General Assembly could continue its annual appropriations to the Teachers' Retirement System and use a significant portion of the state's contribution to pay the unfunded liability.

The plan may require school boards to levy a tax of 20 cents per $100 assessed valuation to pay for the district's contribution to the retirement system.

IASB objects to such legislation for the following reasons:

- 1) Financial responsibility for the retirement system should not be shifted to local taxpayers because it would adversely affect local sources of revenues, thus reducing a school district's ability to provide direct services to students.
- 2) Local tax dollars available for education in any community are limited. Therefore, use of revenues to provide non-direct educational services must be kept at a minimum.
- 3) For a taxpayer living in a dual district and owning a home valued at $30,000, this proposal would increase real estate taxes by up to $10 annually.
- 4) Additionally, it would increase non-direct service expenditures of some school districts by as much as $30,000 to $40,000 a year.
- 5) A real estate tax increase of $40 annually for each family of services will make it extremely difficult for school districts to obtain additional taxes, either legislatively or through referendum.

If a district finds it cannot obtain additional tax increases because of this proposal, its non-direct service expenditures will increase significantly at the price of reducing direct services to students.

The General Assembly is adequately financing the present retirement system. There is no evidence to suggest that those members presently entitled to benefits are not receiving those benefits.

There is no evidence that future general assemblies will not appropriate adequate funds to pay retirement benefits at the time individuals are eligible to receive them.

Existing statutes, and perhaps the constitution, virtually guarantee payment of retirement benefits at the time of retirement.

3) There is a question whether a deficit or unfunded liability exists in the Teachers' Retirement System.

An unfunded liability does not imply a shortage of required or expected funds.

The Illinois Supreme Court ruled in Illinois Federation v. Lindberg, 60 Ill. 2d 288, that the Pension Code neither grants teachers a contractual right to a specific level of funding for their pension plans nor requires that state contributions for the pension system be based on an actuarial basis.

The court said that constitutional provisions designed to protect the system against bankruptcy, but do not require specific funding levels.

Therefore, the courts have established that the Assembly is not required to appropriate funds for accrued benefits.

Because history has shown that the Assembly appropriates funds necessary to pay benefits for those eligible to receive them, we question whether there is an unfunded liability.

For these reasons, the Illinois Association of School Boards continues the position adopted at its 1976 annual meeting, urging that "the Illinois General Assembly adequately fund the Teachers' Retirement System rather than shift the burden to local school districts and individual real estate taxpayers."

American spirit alive and well here

To the Editor:

The March of Dimes walkathon appears to have been a huge success again this year. Over 518 walkers and over $12,000 in pledges. Many persons made it possible.

Paul Lynn solicited the soda, food and the prizes for the walkers, and Mr. and Mrs. Herring of Herring's Flower Shop worked diligently from beginning to end.

There were many other workers who volunteered their time and effort without the great thanks of the whole thing would be nothing.

Merchants, organizations and businesses helping included Hamilton Brothers Meats, Edray, Schermer's, Tarlas Meat Co., Miller's Provisions, Kozay's, Tarpoff, Amvets Post

51. Hudson's Jewelry, Bowland, Granite City Trust, Cohen's, Breakfast, Kiwanis, First National Bank, American Bank, Tri-City Warehouse, Petri's Cafe, Cionko's Market, Pepsi-Cola and Shasta Beverage.

Good neighbors on Terminal and Monroe turned on their water hoses so that the kids might drink.

George Lindsey's not only gave two free dinners for two but also cooked our 1,500 hot dogs for us.

Granite City Steel and St. Elizabeth's Hospital provided checkpoints and soft drinks for all the walkers. Illinois Power provided ice, and Herring's gave a gift certificate.

The Shiner's motorcade did fine work and the Free Spirit CB Club gave its help. The Granite City Police Department and Granite City Park District gave assistance.

We are thankful to Our Father in Heaven who provided such a glorious day and blessed it so abundantly.

At times, we tend to look negatively at our society. But with events like these, we can see clearly that the American spirit of helping our neighbor is not dead.

Our kids have good models in the above mentioned people and organizations, and all that kids need is an opportunity to help and serve. They come through with flying colors.

Says Guardsmen deserve pay raise

To the Editor:

Helping grief-stricken families during flood and tornado — confronting taunts of rioters with all the hazards — enduring the wet, cold clamminess of sandbagging for floods, with long hours beyond the normal working day.

Quarters in a public building eating rough-prepared food meals — these are the emergency conditions when the governor calls the all-volunteer community Guardsmen from their homes and loved ones at any hour of the day or night.

Yet, these great neighbors, Illinois Guardsmen are reporting to a state active-duty minimum daily pay of $25.

The side-by-side municipal worker gets $50 or more, with compensatory time or extra pay if over eight hours.

HB 628, entered by the National Guard Association of Illinois, amends the Illinois Military and Naval Code to $40 a day.

This pay adjustment is needed to meet the inflationary bills coming to the Guardsman's home during his absence for public service.

Recruitment and retention continue as very serious problems. With enlistment requiring years spent in training for public service, it is little wonder there are concerned thoughts about low pay.

Many Guardspeople have families with children. It is further noted that the great majority of Guardsmen, while absent on a civic emergency, receive no pay or only minor benefits from their regular employers.

The Illinois Guard is the only back-up for civil authority when civil disorder or natural disaster bring the governor's call.

We are asking readers to write their legislators in Springfield, urging support for House Bill 628.

'Scare tactics' on women's rights

To the Editor:

Equal rights are nonsense. Everyone knows women can't possibly be considered equal citizens. What is this country coming to, anyway?

People are wanting to be judged on ability rather than race, religion or sex. All of these radical people are wanting equal opportunity with no discrimination.

Can you imagine what would happen if all men and women were being treated equally? I shudder just to think of it.

Our great country was brought up with the belief that all men were created equal. Of course, at that time it meant only white, land-owning men, but not another story. Now women want to be considered equal under the law.

Equality for all people — it sounds like a subversive plot to me. Everyone knows we have to have someone to discriminate against, and women are the best ones to let.

Let's keep it that way. That's what freedom or democracy is all about, isn't it? Bring back the good old days when minorities and women kept their place.

By now, you know this letter is a put-on. But behind all the arguments against the Equal Rights Amendment, this attitude exists.

Think about it. Women are only asking for the same rights that everyone else already has. Is that so horrible?

Scare tactics and rumors and prejudices are trying to defeat an amendment long overdue. This amendment would benefit everyone — men, women and children — and even those who are trying to defeat it.

Don't take my word for it. Just take the time to get the facts. The real facts will convince readers to support this amendment by letting the politicians in Springfield know how they feel.

Letter from Washington

Threat of nuclear holocaust spreading

The urgent need to halt the spread of nuclear weapons capability is a problem that requires immediate attention from Congress and the Administration.

For many years we assumed that only the technologically sophisticated industrial nations had the capacity to launch a successful nuclear weapons program. In the last 15 years, a number of countries have either developed nuclear weapons or obtained the materials and knowledge to construct such devices.

In 1964, the People's Republic of China joined the "club" of nuclear nations, showing that a determined nation could develop nuclear weapons without a solid industrial base. In 1974, India detonated a so-called "peaceful" nuclear explosion, which proved that a developing nation can produce nuclear weapons from a peaceful nuclear program.

Nuclear proliferation has accelerated further since two of our allies, France and West Germany, agreed to provide sensitive nuclear technology to Brazil and Pakistan. Both countries claim that these exports will be subject to strict safeguards, but it will also put Brazil and Pakistan a few short steps away from producing nuclear explosives without violating any commitment.

I have introduced legislation which calls for strict controls on U.S. exports of nuclear technology and agreements to negotiate effective international agreements to halt the continuing spread of nuclear explosive capability.

Legislation alone cannot solve the nuclear proliferation problem. Unless the policies set forth in this bill are implemented through intensive diplomatic efforts to achieve international cooperation and to restrain the nations which hinder any sweeping policy, we will not be successful. The bill will be a major step toward setting tough U.S. non-proliferation policy. It will also help to put international awareness of the danger of proliferation.

Nuclear proliferation is one of the most pressing problems facing the United States and the world today. We must exert strong leadership to help assure adequate protection against nuclear holocaust.

Festival an example of mutual bi-state interest

By DR. ANDREW KOCHMAN
Director of the SIUE
Office of Cultural Arts

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has taken a strong stance on the importance of regional cooperation in announcing the 1977 season of the Mississippi River Festival at both Illinois and Missouri press conferences.

The Missouri conference was held at the Huck Finn, moored on the Mississippi River.

In a period when political differences have split citizens on both sides of the river, on such issues as location of the regional airport, it is perhaps fitting that the arts provide an opportunity for citizens to share a common interest and benefit from jointly attended programs of excellence.

This, after all, is one of the purposes which our cultural and artistic institutions can and should serve.

There has been a revision in festival programming, with an aim towards maintaining high-quality programming which will strive to attract smaller crowds than in previous years.

Audiences of 15,000 to 17,000 should be the maximum number of individuals at any single performance.

By contrast, crowds of over 30,000 in past years led to scattered incidents among a few people in attendance.

The number of rock concerts has been cut from two per week to one per week. In addition, a ban on alcohol has been announced.

In the review of its program and direction, the MRF will consider holding several performances on the Missouri side of the river.

In that the Festival is one of the sole sources of high-quality entertainment which is heavily attended by both Missourians and Illinois citizens, it is only fitting that we consider having more activities conducted in Missouri.

We have the strong backing of the SIUE Board of Trustees and Dr. Kenneth Shaw, president of SIUE, in seeing that the Festival continues despite financial problems which have occurred during the past several seasons.

Miss Ivey Humphrey spoke on "Standards and Ideals For Our Conduct" at a meeting of Xi Epsilon Chi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Monday evening.

President Mrs. Carol Cathey entertained the group in her home, 4113 Maryville Road, and conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Linda Koenig gave a report on the Sorority City Council meeting and named the newly elected council officers. A check and sorority pins was received from Theta Iota Chapter by Mrs. Joan Pritchard, treasurer, and given to Barbara Hente, Candy Thompson, Helen Hall and Cathy Farnbach, in appreciation for their work relating to a ways and means project.

An Easter party, hosted by Mrs. Hente in her home for members, children, husbands and nieces, was reviewed. Others present were Janet Monaghan, Marilyn Lumpkins, Barbara Jean Jones and Donna Lane.

Gardenaires discuss events

Gardenaires Garden Club discussed the 50th annual meeting of the Garden Clubs of Illinois, Inc., which will be Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in Arlington Heights, Ill., near Chicago, and the District V meeting set for 10:30 a.m., May 5, in Edwardsville.

President Mrs. Mary Kristian conducted the meeting following a dessert luncheon served at the Grand Cafe by hostess, Mrs. A. B. Shannon, last week.

Mrs. Earl Glenn, Garden Center chairman, reported "Wildflowers" is the present theme of the mini-garden display at the Granite City public library.

Flowering crab apple trees have been planted at the Madison County Nature Trail, though the effort of the Granite City garden clubs, according to Mrs. Charles Kohl, Mrs. Roy Hormann, vice-president and chairman of the program committee and her committee members presented the years' program and projects which will follow the theme of conservation. Roll call will relate to wildflowers, they added.

In keeping with the theme, Mrs. William Long, gave a program on wildflowers entitled, "Know, Grow and Preserve Them." She gave examples of different species and how to care for the individual plants.

An invitation was received from the Cloverview Garden Club to join in a day of "sharing and caring" at a joint meeting with other garden clubs at 12 noon on May 10 at the Nameki Recreation Center. A program on Water Quality will be presented by Miss Vicky Parks of the East-West Gateway Council it was noted.

Others present were Mesdames C. E. Eads, John Farrell, Richard Kerch, Thomas Layloff, A. A. Malotki, Leo Schank and Robert Hintz.

Summer dance institute

The Mississippi River Festival, held on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, will again offer a Summer Dance Institute as part of the Festival's continuing effort at combining performance and learning during the nine-week series of events.

"We're offering two separate sessions this season," said Festival Arts Administrator Vicky Holt, "in conjunction with the Washington University Performing Arts Area Dance Division."

Mrs. Holt said a four-week session beginning July 11 will be an intermediate to advanced level that offers technique, theory, improvisation and composition taught by Phyllis Lamhut and then by Kathryn Posin.

"Phyllis Lamhut," said Mrs. Holt, "is unique in that she has become known for her subtle use of humor in her choreography. Also, she was with the Nikolais Dance Theater in New York and is a major offspring of that company. We're very fortunate to be able to have her here."

The Nikolais Dance Company will be performing at the Festival June 30 and will give special master classes to both sessions of the Institute.

Kathryn Posin and her company, Mrs. Holt added, will be making their first appearance in this metropolitan area.

Although fairly new in the field, Miss Posin has already received major commissions from the New York Shakespeare Festival and the American Dance Festival. Her choreography has been incorporated by several well-known companies, including the Eliot Feld Ballet Company in New York.

The second session of the dance institute will be a three-week elementary session taught by Peggy Berg and Annelise Mertz.

"Both of these women are important dance figures in St. Louis," said Mrs. Holt. "Annelise Mertz, of course, is the head of the Dance Division of the Performing Arts Area of Washington University and is the originator of the Summer Institute."

"Her credentials include performing with the Kurt Joos Dance Theater and others in Europe, and she is the founder and first president of the Dance Concert Society in St. Louis."

"Peggy Berg," said Mrs. Holt, "was guest artist-in-residence at Washington University in 1975 and is now a full-time faculty member and artist-in-residence. She has worked with Merce Cunningham, Viola Farber, the New York School of Ballet and others."

During the institute, students will be offered free tickets to fine arts events at the Festival and also discounted group ticket rates to contemporary events.

"There will also be evening classes for both levels," added Mrs. Holt, "and they will be taught by Mary Jean Cowell. She is also an artist-in-residence at Washington University."

"She came from Japan and has worked with the Obie Koe Repertory Company there, as well as performing in New York with the Katherine Litz Company and others."

Special lectures on music will be given during the institute by Steven Radecke and David Moss, and special lectures in dance therapy will be given by Becky Engler.

There will also be a limited number of master classes and lecture demonstrations open and free to the public.

The Summer Dance Institute will be limited to 60 participants, Mrs. Holt said. Interested parties may contact her at the River Festival office on the campus of SIUE or Annelise Mertz at Washington University.

SOUND OF MUSIC will be presented at 8 p.m. today and Friday in the Granite City High School South auditorium. The play is being produced by North students. Cast members seated are Laura Deatherage, left, playing Elsa, and Tammy Pounds as Maria; standing are Jon Kastelic, left, as Max, and Tony Johnson as Captain Von Trapp.

Opera production a first for region

When the curtain goes up April 30 at 8:15 p.m., the first opera ever produced by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville departments of music and theater will be under way.

"Die Fledermaus" (The Bat), a three-act operetta with music by Johann Strauss Jr., will be presented in English so that first-time opera-goers can reap "the full enjoyment of grand opera."

According to Rico Serbo, opera instructor at SIUE, this production is not only a "labor of love" but will be one of the first theater productions at the university involving both the music and theater departments.

"Die Fledermaus" is being performed by members of the SIUE Opera Workshop under the direction of Serbo. Two workshop members have been chosen to play the principal roles so that more students can have the opportunity to star in the two-night engagement.

Other workshop students not in singing roles will be getting practical experience as part of the opera technical staff. This is the workshop's first appearance as a performing group.

"Die Fledermaus" is based on the French play, "Le Revenant," which pokes fun at aristocracy, wealth and opera as well.

Portraying main characters during the April 30 performance are: Elizabeth Wallner of Waggoner, Rosalinda; Margaret McCuskey of Belleville, Adele; and David O'Dell of St. Louis, Alfred.

On May 1, the cast will be: Jane Kamp of Florissant, Rosalinda; Debra Becker of Manchester, Mo., Adele; and Dan Pickett of Gillespie, Alfred.

Cast members performing both nights are: Robert Nagy of Alton, Eisenstein; Brenda Warren of St. Louis, Prince Orlofsky; Greg Riddle as Dr. Blind, Kevin Koontz as Dr. Falke and Steve Coggeshall as Ivan, all of Belleville; Don Cannedy of Wood River, Frank; Jennifer Jones of Edwardsville, Ida; and Don Loucks of the SIUE music faculty, Froese.

Mezzo-soprano Carol Kirkpatrick is staging the production. Carl St. Clair, SIUE band director, is conducting the two-piano accompaniment by university artists Linda Perry and John Gross. The chorus is directed by Leonard Van Camp, director of choral activities at SIUE.

Costumes were designed by Reta Samples, university costume, and Linda Wigley of Lombard, a theater graduate student. Sets were designed by Larry Bogdan, master scenic artist at SIUE.

Lighting is by Charles Otis Sweeney, assistant professor of theater and dance, and Kevin Baugh of Granite City, a technical theater student.

Serbo said that at the beginning of the year, students began interpreting the roles with very little singing in the opera workshop. Basics such as standing and walking on stage, mixed with acting lessons, were taught in the workshop.

A recent addition to the SIUE music faculty, he has been under contract to leading German opera houses, with guest engagements in Austria, Switzerland, Italy, Holland and England.

He says he knows only too well how important it is to teach young performers how to walk across a stage in heavy boots, or make a graceful turn without tripping over a long train on the back of a grand opera gown.

"These are things you never think about, but when you have to wear opera costumes on stage it can be a problem."

Serbo said this is the first complete opera most of the students have ever performed in. Most of them have never performed a major or complete operatic role.

"We hope to give them an idea of what it is like to put a whole opera together—how much it involves other departments," he said.

"If we did not have the cooperation of the theater and music departments, we would not have opera here."

He said "Die Fledermaus" was picked to be the first opera because it has a good vocal level for college students.

"It is a demanding work but not so much that it will strain their voices," he said. "It's a good first opera for us because it has dialogue and a lot of catchy tunes."

"Die Fledermaus" will be presented in the Mass Communications Building April 30 and May 1 at 8:15 p.m.

Admission for SIUE students is free. Adults are $2, high school students $1 and children under twelve are 50 cents. Tickets for senior citizens and groups of 20 or more are $1.50.

GC Jr. Service installs

Installation ceremonies for the 1977-78 officers of the Granite City Junior Service Club were held, Monday evening, at the Cheshire Inn, following a dinner meeting. Mary Lou Richardson served as installing officer for Pam Reed, president; Sue Riess, first vice-president; Janet LeGrand, second vice-president; Faith Holsinger, recording secretary; Janet Warren, corresponding secretary; Wilma Eddington newly elected treasurer was unable to attend the meeting. Mrs. Beverly King, the retiring president, was presented with a special gift and scrapbook registering activities held during her term of office. A candlelight initiation ceremony was also held for new members, Jo Ella Harris and Gail Miodski. The King introduced Joan Wachter as new probationary member. Others attending were Brenda Weckman, Donna Polivick, Rose Ann Bates, Mary Lou Worthen, Donna Sprankle, Flora Mae Lansing, Charlene Pohlman, Janice Staats, Bettie Kozar and Jean Ann Vrenick, the latter two are club advisors.

Madison Jr. Service plans road block

The Madison Junior Service Club met at the Madison Recreation Center and finalized plans to have a road block on Friday, May 6, at Sixth Street and Madison Avenue from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., to collect for the March of Dimes campaign.

Their earlier date was cancelled due to inclement weather. A slate of officers elected to serve for the 1977-78 club year include: Teresa Rhoads, president; Mary Ann Kaminski, first vice-president; Caroline Champion, second vice-president; Carol Childers, third vice-president; Jo Ann Gushleff, recording secretary; Donna Woodard, corresponding secretary; Margaret Amish, treasurer and Elvera Stagner, Fannie Fisk and Shirley Clark, board members.

Official installation ceremonies will be held on May 10 at the Steak and Ale, it was announced. Shirley Clark will be installed as secretary of the Junior Service Federation at ceremonies planned for May 21 at the Madison Recreation Center, it was noted.

The club agreed to sponsor Madison High School student Donnie Boyer, who is to participate in the Southwestern Illinois Combined Band. They will tour the southern states and perform at numerous events on the trip and have been scheduled to march in the Disney World parade, give a concert in Orlando, Fla., and visit Opry Land USA in Nashville, Tenn. While there the band will play a concert at Hermitage House, the home of former U.S. President Andrew Jackson. Boyer was chosen for the tour

MRS. PAULINE CANHAM ENTERTAINS CLUB Mrs. Pauline Canham, 2663 Benton St., entertained the Monday Afternoon Club this week in her home. Prizes were awarded to Marvel Clover, Leona Parente, and Myrtle Bruns and the hostess. Also present were Margaret Richardson, Vi Edwards and Marie Perry. Mrs. Clover will host the next meeting in her home, 4024 Maryville Road.

Nameeki School Spring Carnival

The annual Spring Carnival of Nameeki School will be held from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. Friday in the school gymnasium. It was announced by Mrs. Fran Kingston, PTA president. Plans for the event were finalized at a special executive board meeting. Mrs. Shirley Berry, kitchen chairman, advised the group the menu will include all items at last year's prices and Mrs. Patti Painter, telephone chairman, noted more cake donations are needed for the cake walk. She added volunteers will be needed to preside at each of the booths and projects.

Arrangements were discussed to have the sixth grade students serve as guides and errand runners at the carnival and they will be wearing derby hats, red vests and garters.

The president reported several new booths and attractions will include a Disco Room with Mrs. Joann Gaumer in charge; an animal walk directed by Mrs. Judy Heaton; the mouse maze under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Max Forbes; games with Loretta Pulley presiding and a Country Craft booth planned by Mrs. Linda Givens.

The club voted to send donations to the Cancer Foundation for $25; Specialized Services, $25; purchased tickets costing $50 for the banquet honoring the Madison High School basketball championship team; and contributed $100 towards an air conditioner at the Recreation Center and $100 for the annual sports dinner of the Madison High School athletes.

Prizes for the evening were presented to Caroline Champion, Julie Voloski, Fannie Fisk, Donna Kostecky and Donna Dorris. Hostesses Margaret Amish and Elvera Stagner served refreshments to those named and to Gertrude Ashford, Rita Barnhart, June Bessling, Carol Childers, Shirley Clark, Irene Hackett, Jo Ann Gushleff, Mary Ann Kaminski, Donna Patterson, Teresa Rhoads, Janet Shultz, Dorothy Smith and Donna Woodard.

BETROTHED. Miss Lisa Mitchell and Airman David W. Gaudette. Their engagement is being announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mitchell, 2583 Boyle Ave. Wedding plans are indefinite at the present time.

Gaudette-Mitchell engagement

The engagement of Miss Lisa Mitchell and Airman David W. Gaudette is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mitchell, 2583 Boyle Ave. Her fiancé is presently employed at Central Hardware. Her fiancé is a 1976 graduate from North High School and is now in the Air Force stationed in Germany. Wedding plans are indefinite at the present time.

Mrs. Paschedag PTA president

A father and son basketball game was the highlight of April meeting of the Mitchell School PTA held last week in the school gymnasium, with the boys winning the game.

To open the session Cub Pack 141 presented the colors, led by Mrs. Carol Meyers.

During the business segment an election of officers was held. Mrs. Betty Paschedag will serve as the 1977-78 president; Mrs. Connie Cornelison, first vice-president; Arthur Menendez, second vice-president; Viva Elliott, secretary; Carol McNelly, treasurer.

The room prize for parent attendance went to Mrs. June Allsup's upper primary room and the evening award was given to Mrs. Carol Hutchings. Mrs. Elliott, the outgoing president, announced the school picnic will be held from 12 noon to 3 p.m. on May 26 at Wilson Park.

Barbara Staub is honoree at party

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Staub, 2542 Grand Ave., entertained during the weekend at a party in honor of their daughter, Barbara, on her fifteenth birthday. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, Robin and Joy Williams, Mrs. Alberta Hill, an aunt; Melanie Williams and the honoree's sister, Sharon.

Birthday cake and refreshments were served by the guest of honor's mother.
